Westminster,
Westminster,
Westminster.
Westminster.
Westminster.
Westminster.
Rotherhithe.
Westminster.
Westminster.
Westminster.
Westminster.

Membrane 33—cont.

the church of Cranewitz, and Thomas de Brethenham, to the said prior and the convent of the same place of the manor of Northtudenham called 'Belloushalle' and the advowson of a mediety of the church of Northtudenham, held of William de Morle, and an acre of land in Northtudenham and the advowson of the other [mediety] of the said church, held of the bishop of Ely, as has been found by inquisition made by John de Cressyngham, escheator in the county of Norfolk; and for the appropriation of the church by the prior and the convent.

July 24. Exemption for life of Auker Frecehevil from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

July 24. Protection for one year only for Richard de Guergoillecio and Westminster. Stephen Pluischer, of the order of the Minors of the duchy of Britanny, on testimony that they are not adherents or favourers of the king's enemies of France, in staying in the university of Oxford engaged in scholastic acts and in returning to their own parts whenever they please.

The like for Peter de Montevilario, of the order of the Minors of the county of Montbéliard (Montisbeligard), who was born under the Roman Empire.

July 28. Appointment of John Haveryng to take with all speed forty of Westminster. the best carpenters of the counties of Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Essex and Hertford to be ready to go with the king on his service to foreign parts whenever summoned; and to arrest all contrariants and rebels and imprison them until the king give order touching their punishment.

By K.

Aug. 23. The like of John de Massyngham, Robert Franceys and William Westminster. Lymbury to take twenty carpenters.

Aug. 27. The like of Master William Wynford, 'mason,' and Robert de Rotherhithe. Kentebury to take thirty hewers of stone in the counties of Essex, Middlesex, Kent, Hertford, and London, for the same.

The like of William Wynford to take twenty hewers of stone in the counties of Somerset and Wilts.

their charters which the present king has confirmed, granted to the prior and convent of the church of St. Andrew the Apostle, Rochester, and their successors, the following liberties in the hundred and city of Rochester, to wit, of the whole hundred of the said city the fourth penny and of the issues pertaining to the provostship of the city one fourth part, and other liberties specified in the charters, and the prior and convent, by their charter, have surrendered to the king the said fourth penny and fourth part, as well as all manner of tithes which they claim in his park of Eltham as of the right of their church or otherwise, in exchange for other lands to be granted to them in