Licence for Alice Perers of London to grant for life to Henry del Westminster. Strother ‘le pierre’ two parts of the manor of Monylawes, co. Northumberland, held in chief, and the reversion of the third part which Thomas de Blensansop and Margaret, his wife, hold in dower for the life of the said Margaret, likewise held in chief, with remainders to John son of the said Henry, in tail male, to Henry brother of the said John, in tail male, to Thomas brother of the said Henry, in tail male, and to the right heirs of Henry del Strother ‘le pierre.’

By p.s.

Whereas William son of William de Stratford, sometime lord of the manor of Ellesfeld, before the time of memory granted to the prior and convent of St. Frideswide’s, Oxford, in frank almon, a fifth part of that manor, which is not held of the king, and to make the grant complete, delivered to them every fifth building and place in Ellesfeld, and every fifth acre of land, meadow, pasture and wood and the fifth part of mills, waters and fisheries pertaining to that lordship, and put them in seisin of these, by virtue of which grant and confirmation of the same by the king and his progenitors the prior and convent hold the said fifth part at the present time, the king on the supposition of the prior and convent, and of Thomas de Ellesfeld, now lord of the manor, who for their common profit and quiet have agreed that with the king’s licence the prior and convent shall have certain parcels of the said lordship and Thomas the rest, has granted licence for Thomas to grant to the prior and convent in mortmain 74 acres of land, 7 acres of meadow, 43 acres of pasture and 36 acres of wood in the field and lordship of the manor in exchange for such fifth part.

Grant for life to John Desterny of a messuage in the parish of St. Martin in the Vintry, London, late of Henry de Hereford, who held the same in chief, which has come into the king’s hand as an escheat.

By p.s.

Licence, for 10 marks paid to the king by William de Swynflet, archdeacon of Norwich, for the alienation in mortmain by him to the master of the hospital of St. John, Bishop’s Lenn, of two messuages, 13s. 4d. of rent and a moiety of a messuage in Bishop’s Lenn, not held in chief, in aid of the sustenance of himself and two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the church of the hospital for the good estate of Thomas, bishop of Norwich, and the archdeacon, for their souls when they shall have departed this life and for the souls of their successors.

Whereas the king, at the request of William de Wyndesore, by letters patent lately pardoned Richard Page for the death of Thomas Bernard; being now more fully informed that Richard killed the said Thomas of malice aforethought, he by these presents revokes the said letters so far as they have become effective, not willing that they should be of any aid to Richard henceforth.

By K. on the information of William Latymer, steward of the household.

Presentation of John Spicer, parson of the church of Westgrene Westminster, stede, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Hertfeld.