1369.

Membrane 25—cont.

Aug. 26. Presentation of Thomas de Frisby, chaplain, to the church of Rotherhithe. Whytbourne, in the diocese of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of that see.

Aug. 27. Grant, for life or until other order, to Ralph Bateill, one of the king's porters, groom, of an annuity of 60s. at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Aug. 27. Grant to Henry de Yevele that whereas, by letters patent, dated 25 June in the thirty-fourth year, the king appointed him during pleasure to be disposer of the works of masonry in the palace of Westminster and the Tower of London, with 12d. a day by the hands of William de Lambhithe, then surveyor of the said works, he shall take the 12d. a day for life, to wit, during the works by the hands of the clerk of such works, and when the works cease at the Exchequer, as well as a winter robe yearly at the great wardrobe of the suit of the esquires of the household, or such sum in the said wardrobe for the robe as one of the esquires takes for one. By p.s. Vacated and surrendered because Richard II., on 22 October in his thirteenth year, granted to him the manors of Tremworth and Vannes, co. Kent.

Aug. 28. Presentation of John Stephyn, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Lanyavery, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the prior of Tywardrayth, alien, being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Aug. 29. Pardon, at the request of the earl of Salisbury, to Thomas Poudyngton of the county of Devon of the king's suit for the death of Richard Frandel of the said county, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Sept. 26. Presentation of John de Stretford, chaplain, to the church of Westminster. Horsmonden, in the diocese of Rochester, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Michael de Ponynges, 'chivaler,' who held in chief. By K.

Membrane 24.

Aug. 14. Grant for life to William White, one of the palfreymen of the late Queen Philippa, of the 2d. a day granted by her letters patent to him for her life out of the issues of the castle and barton of Marlbergh; the castle and barton having now come into the king's hands by her death. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen, by letters patent, granted to Adam Forester the office of porter of her place of La Rible, London, to hold at her will, taking for his wages and a special reward 3d. a day and a robe yearly of the suit of her yeomen, and the place has now come into the king's hands by the death of the queen; the king has granted to him the said 3d. a day to be taken at the Exchequer for life, on condition that he attend to the office for the time during which the place shall remain in the king's hands. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen, by several letters patent, granted for Westminster her life to Stephen de Haddele, yeoman of her chamber, (1) an annuity