of 100s. out of the issues of the manor of Banstede, and (2) the keeping of the warren of the manor and lordship of Gillyngham, co. Dorset, and the office of the bailiwick of the hundred there, taking for his wages 3d. a day of the issues of the manor of Gillyngham; and these manors are now come into the king's hands by her death; the king has granted to him for life the said annuity, the keeping of the warren and the wages, so that he answer faithfully for the money and other profits received by him for the king's use. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen, by letters patent, granted for her life to Westminster. Geoffrey Picard a bushel of wheat weekly and 1d. a day of the issues of the manor of Istelworth, and the manor has now come into the king's hands by her death; the king has granted to him for life in lieu of the said wheat 43s. 4d., and 1d. a day out of the said issues. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen granted for life to Adam de Grantham, groom of her chamber, the lands late of Henry Brewer, tenant of the manor of Bray, who was hanged for felony, he paying the rents and doing the services due, and these lands have now come into the king's hands by her death; the king has granted the same to him for life on the same terms. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Grant in like terms to Robert de Bolton, late sumpter of the queen's jewels, of 2d. a day for his life of the issues of the manor of Haveryng. By p.s.

Grant in like terms to Richard de Redyng of the keeping of the warren pertaining to the manor of Haveryng atte Boure. By p.s.

Sept. 30. Grant, for life or until other order, to Edmund Everard of an annuity of 40 marks at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas Queen Philippa, by letters patent, granted so far as in her lay to Thomas Levesone, then groom of her chamber, 2d. a day for life out of the issues of the manor of Bray, and the manor has come into the king's hands by her death, the king has granted the same to him for life. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Grant, for life or until other order, to John de Wyndesore, in lieu, of a bushel of wheat weekly of the issues of the manor of Wyrardesbury granted to him by the said queen for her life, of 43s. 4d. yearly of the said issues. By p.s.

Aug. 16. Grant for life to John de Wyght of Kyngeston, yeoman of the said queen's pantry, of the keeping of the park and warren of Banstede with such wages, fees and profits as Richard de Podenhale, late keeper, had, granted to him for her life by the queen's letters patent, dated 1 March, 42 Edward III; the manor having now come into king's hand by her death. By p.s.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen, by several letters patent, granted for her Westminster. life to her yeoman Richard de Statnes, for long service, (1) 3d. a day out of the issues of the manor of Istelworth beyond that which he