Nomination to Thomas de Campo Arnulphi of Gilbert de Billeyo, monk of the abbey of St. Mary, St. Pierre-sur-Dyve, for him to present to the priory of Modbury, in the diocese of Exeter, void by the death of Philip Fornerii, the last prior. The said priory is annexed to the said abbey, and it pertains to the king to nominate a monk for Thomas to present by reason of the temporalities in England of the abbey being in his hands on account of the war with France. And mandate to him to present by letters patent the same Gilbert to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Exeter for admission to the priory.

Nomination to Hugh de Courtenay, earl of Devon, of Ralph de Chelfham, monk of the Cluniaic order, for him to admit to the priory of St. James by Exeter, of the said order, now void, annexed to the priory of St. Martin de Campis by Paris of the same order; to which priory it pertains to the king to nominate a monk of the said order.

Presentation of Richard Palmer, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Aldburgh, in the diocese of York, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the prior of Burstall, alien, being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Signification to S. bishop of London, of the royal assent to the election of Richard de Colne, monk of the house of St. John, Colecestre, to be abbot of that place.

Whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to his esquire Helmyng Leget the keeping of the smaller piece of the seal for the recognisances of debts in London, with power to execute the office by a sworn deputy; with the assent of Helmyng, he has committed the office to Robert de Cayton during the pleasure of the said Helmyng, so that he execute the office in person.

Presentation of William de Humberstone, the younger, to the church of Tilneye, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of John de Bardolf of Wyrmegay, who hold in chief.

By K.

Commission to Thomas de Lacford to collect in the counties of Essex and Hertford the subsidy of cloths for sale granted to the king in a great council lately held at Westminster in return for the remission by him of the forfeitures of the alnage of cloths, to seal the cloths when the subsidy has been paid, and to warn all person or, if need be, have proclamation made, that no cloths be exposed for sale until the subsidy has been paid; also to search all houses, shops and other places where there are cloths for sale and seize as forfeit any found unsealed, and to retain for himself in aid of his farm the forfeited cloths.

By bill of the treasurer.

The like to Richard Barct, in the city of London; and to deliver the forfeited cloths to the sheriffs by indenture.