Membrane 13—cont.

43. 4d. yearly by the hands of the same in lieu of the said bushel of wheat.

By p.s.

The like grant to the following:

John de Beddeford, late groom of her chamber, in lieu of a bushel of wheat weekly out of the manor of Langeley Marreys. By p.s.

Thomas Barnevill, in lieu of a bushel of wheat weekly out of the manor of Bray. By p.s.

Vacated and surrendered because King Richard on 4 June in his fifth year, by letters patent, granted the annuity to the king's serjeant William Gulle with the assent of the said Thomas.

Aug. 14. Whereas the said queen, by letters patent, granted for life to John Westminster. Horblyng 2d. a day of the issues of the castle of Knaresburgh, and afterwards, because he dwelt for the most part at London on account of his friends, with the assent of her council, granted him the said sum for life out of the issues of the manor of Istelworth, co. Middlesex, by the hands of the reeve, farmer, bailiff or other keeper of the manor; the king, into whose hands the manor has come, confirms the grant.

By p.s.

Aug. 14. Confirmation as above of a grant for life by the said queen to Westminster. Nicholas de Okebourn of 2d. a day out of the issues of the manor of Wyrardesbury.

By p.s.

Membrane 12.

Oct. 29. Whereas, in 14 Edward I, Richard de Exmue granted 5 marks of rent out of tenements and shops in the parish of the church of St. Dunstan towards the Tower to find a chantry in the said church; in 18 Edward I, Laurence Duket bequeathed 5 marks of rent out of a tenement held by Robert de Suthfolk in the parishes of St. Martin in the Vintry, All Hallows at the 'Heywharf' and St. Michael Pater-nosterchirche, London, to find a chantry in the last named church; in 20 Edward I, Peter Cosyn bequeathed 5 marks of rent out of tenements in Donnegate in the parish of All Hallows at the Haywharf (ad fenum), London, to find a chantry in that church; in 26 Edward I, Walter de Hendon, chaplain, bequeathed a brewhouse with eight shops, with sollers built over them, two shops without sollers, a garden and two vacant plots of land with a chamber in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Neugate in the suburb of London, of the clear yearly value of 5 marks, and a void plot of land in the parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, in a lane called 'Goldelane,' of the yearly value of 12d., to find a chantry in the last named church; in 20 Edward I, Henry Bole bequeathed 5½ marks of rent out of a tenement in the parish of All Hallows in the corner of Grascherche, London, to find certain works of charity in the same church; in 5 Edward II, Peter de Blakeneye bequeathed two tenements in the street of 'Martelane,' London, one called 'Le Blakloft' on the west side of the street, of the clearly yearly value of 4 marks, and the other on the east side of the same street in the parish of St. Olave, of the clear yearly value of 4 marks, to find a chantry in the church of Berkyngecherche London, and Alan de Chepe bequeathed 5½ marks of rent out of a tenement, with shops and other appurtenances, in the parish of St. Andrew on Cornhill, London, to find a chantry in that church;