from the said 16 February, at the Exchequer for her life; and whereas she has now prayed that, whereas she dwells in distant parts and is put to great labour and expense in coming yearly to the Exchequer to obtain payment of the annuity, the king will grant to her for life 52 marks out of the farm or rent of the town of Carlisle, and has surrendered the letters patent of the 50l. at the Exchequer; the king has granted her petition By bill of the treasurer.

Nov. 5. Grant for life to the king's yeoman William de Brantyngham of Westminster, the keeping of the smaller piece of the seal for the recognisances of debs, pursuant to the statute of Acton Burnel for the merchants, in the town of Kyngeston-upon-Hull.

Nov. 15. Grant, for life or until other order, to the king's serjeant Richard Westminster, de Sutton of an annuity of 10l. at the Exchequer.

Sept. 4. Commitment for life to the king's yeoman Richard de Sutton of Westminster, the keeping of the king's privy palace of Westminster, taking in that office 6d. a day for his wages and 20s. for his robe at the Exchequer from 24 August, 42 Edward III, since which time he has held the office by the king's command; in such manner as William Husseburn, deceased, late keeper of the office, took.

Nov. 20. Presentation of Robert de Baynton to the church of Styueton, in Westminster, the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Henry Beaumond, who held in chief.

Membrane 10—cont.

Nov. 10. Licence, after inquisition taken by John de Bishopeston, escheator in the county of Middlesex, and for 5 marks paid in the hanaper by John de Kevermond, for Christiana daughter of William Gaunt of Bybrok to grant that a third part of the office of the ushership of the Exchequer, which is said to be held in chief, and which (one third part of the offices of the ushers and criers in the Common Bench, and marshals, ushers, criers and barrier-men (barriariorum) in all eyres of justices in England, and of 5d. a day at the receipt of the Exchequer when the Exchequer is open excepted) John Bray holds for life, and a third part of a fourth part of the office of the criers in the said Common Bench which John Houel holds for life, and a third part of a fourth part of the same office which John Bray likewise holds for life, which third parts are parcels of the ushership of the Exchequer, shall remain to the said John de Kevermond and his heirs; and to grant a third part of the said offices of the ushers in the said Common Bench, and marshals, ushers, criers and barrier-men in the said eyres, and of a mooty of the office of criers in the said Bench, likewise parcel of the office of the ushership of the Exchequer, as well as a third part of the said 5d. a day pertaining to the said ushership, to the said John de Kevermond and his heirs; which third parts together with the said reversions are of the clear yearly value of 30s.

Nov. 12. Pardon to Walter Womburne of Sobburye of the king's suit for the death of Richard Shepeherd of Oldesobburye, of which he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

By p.s.