Dec. 6. Presentation of Richard de Flycham, parson of the church of Westminster, Blachyngton, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Nytyombre, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of John de Bohun, who held in chief; on an exchange of benefices with Robert, parson of the latter church.

Aug. 20. Inspeximus and confirmation to Hugh de Segrave for life of letters patent (in French) of the late Queen Philippa, (1) dated at Windsor Castle, 2 April, 43 Edward III, reciting that, whereas she lately granted to Robert de Foulshurst for his life so far as in her lay the constabulary of the castle of Bristuyt, and the keeping of the forest of Kyngeswode and Filwode for her life, taking for the constabulary 20l. yearly, with wages for a porter and watchmen, and for the keeping such wages, fees and other profits as Thomas de Bradestan, late keeper, took, the said Robert, for a sum in hand paid, by letters patent under his seal has now released to the said Hugh, her esquire, his right in the premises, and confirming all that Robert had done in favour of Hugh; (2) dated at Windsor, 3 August, 43 Edward III, granting to the said Hugh, keeper of the forest of Kyngeswode, the broom (gorst) of all places from which the said Robert had it, he rendering for the same as Robert rendered.

Vacated because surrendered, on the ground that the constabulary and keeping are committed, with the assent of Hugh, to John de Thorpe, 'chivaler,' for life, as appears by letters patent enrolled in July, 47 Edward III.

Nov. 14. Pardon at the request of Alan de Buxhull, to William del Hill of Westburghunte, otherwise called William of the Hill, of the king's suit for the death of John Dryng of Drifflend, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

Membrane 5.

June 18. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Wykchem, bishop of Winchester, to the prior and convent of the priory of Suthewyky, of the foundation of the king's progenitors and the king's patronage, of the manor of Bourhunte Herberd and all lands in Suthewyky, Wanstede, Porchestre, Westburghunte and Wymernyng late of John de Bourhunte, knight, son and heir of Thomas de Bourhunte, which are not held in chief, as is said, of the manor of Bourhunte Herbelyn and all lands in the said towns late of Richard Danvers, which are held in chief by the service of finding an armed man in Porchestre castle for fifteen days in time of war; to maintain chantries, pious works and other divine services according to the bishop's ordinance. And because the bishop and the prior and convent have granted to the king and his heirs a rent of 6s. 8d. out of the said manors and lands to be paid at the Exchequer at Michaelmas by the hands of the sheriff of Southampton, the king grants that, on the cession or decease of the prior or other voidance of the priory, or if ever the priory be in the king's hands by occasion of crimes, trespasses, contempts or other causes, the sub-prior and convent and their successors shall have possession thereof to their own use, and free administration of the manors and lands without rendering account to the king, and no
