

1369.

MEMBRANE 45d.

June 11. Commission to John de Cobeham, Robert Bealknap, William de Westminster. Horne, Simon de Kegworth and Thomas de Garwynton to survey the coasts of the isle of Thanet and to have all places in which ships or boats can put in defended by walls and dykes where possible, and all other necessary measures taken for defence of the island. [Fœdera.]
By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 44d.

June 12. Commission to John de Cobham, 'chivaler,' Roger Dyg, William Westminster. Topclyf and John Idelegh to survey the bridge of Rochester over the water of Medeweeye, which is reported to be in a very dangerous state, to find by inquisition the names of those who should repair it as well as of those who have collected money for such repair and have not applied it on this, and to compel all those who are bound to repair the bridge to make good the defects and those who have collected money and not applied it to make restitution.

June 12. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Wychyngham, Westminster. Edmund Gourneye, John de Berneye and Reynold de Eccles, touching evildoers who broke a ship of James Henrison called la Seinte Marie at the Rode of Kirkele, co. Suffolk, and carried away his goods.
By C.

Oct. 16. The like to Robert de Thorpe, Thomas de Ingelby, Godfrey Westminster. Foljaumbe, Robert de Swylyngton, Thomas de Wythornwyk and William Bray, on complaint by the abbot of Kirkested that, whereas he is lord of a pasture called 'La Wildmore,' co. Lincoln, and in right of his tenure has, and his predecessors time out of mind have had, the agistment of all cattle agisted in the pasture, and the scrutiny and impounding of cattle feeding in the pasture as may be expedient, and he caused divers cattle agisted in the pasture whose agistment was in arrear and other animals put there against his will to be taken by his servants and impounded in a place called 'Le Ermitorie' in the said moor, as was lawful for him to do, Richard de le Feld of Benyngton, Richard Shakelok of Benyngton, John Haynson of Benyngton, John del Park of Fenne, Roger de Grymescroft of Leek, Henry Cok of Boston, William Bayard of Boston, Richard, parson of the church of Benyngton, Henry 'the priourservant of Freston,' and others armed, broke the pound, drove away the cattle therein, without satisfaction made to him of the agistment and his damages, put them in the pasture against his will, trod down and consumed with cattle his grass there, assaulted his men and servants, and so threatened and plotted against them that they dare not go anywhere to make his profit.

For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 43d.

June 22. Commission to Roger de Meres, John de Fencotes, John de Strete, Westminster. Nicholas de Westerdale, Richard de Craunfeld and the sheriff of Bedford, to survey the banks of the water of Ouse between the towns of Kempston and Bedeford, as the king has learned by complaint of certain of the county that these are in a dangerous state; and to find