1370.
June 27. Westminster. William Wymer; for the offices of the buyer of the hall, chamber, scullery and saucery, until the Purification.

Sept. 10. Westminster. John Parker; for the falcons of the mews near Westminster, until Midsummer.

Oct. 10. Westminster. Richard Merlowe; to purvey wheat for the expenses of the household, until Whitsuntide.

Oct 27. Westminster. John Buterle; for the expenses of the king's cart-horses and sumpter-horses, which Richard Fode is appointed to lodge, until Whitsuntide.
John Person; for the king's horses, until the same feast.
Robert Weryngton; for the king's horses, until the same feast.
Richard Fode; for the king's cart-horses and sumpter-horses, and to lodge the same, until the same feast.

Oct. 10. Westminster. Henry de Cranford; for the king's horses, until the same feast.
John Falconer; for the destriers, coursers, palfreys, sumpter-horses and cart-horses which Ralph de Brun, John Person and William Depyng are assigned by divers commissions to lodge, until the same feast.

Nov. 1. Westminster. Robert Makeney; for the office of the poultry, until the same feast.
Richard de Trenge; for the same office, until the same feast.
Nicholas Blount; for the same office, until the same feast.

Nov. 20. Westminster. John de Treston; to purvey wheat for the expenses of the household, until the same feast.
Thomas de Stok; as above.

Nov. 1. Westminster. Thomas Fode; for the wages of the lodgings.

Oct. 10. Westminster. Henry de Cranford; for the king's horses, until the same feast.

Dec. 3. Westminster. Miles de Buxston; for the office of the bakehouse, until Whitsuntide.

Membrane 26.

March 20. Ratification of the estate of David le Bosscher as parson of the Westminster church of Rawere, in the diocese of Meath in Ireland.

Feb. 24. Confirmation for life to John de Stafford of the 6d. daily of the issues Westminster of the manor of Havering-atte-Bourc granted him by Philippa, the late queen, on condition that he remained intendant on her works in the office of tailor in 'la Riolle,' London, the said manor having come into the king's hand by the death of the queen; and the said John is now to be intendant on the king's works as tailor in the wardrobe whenever he be required by the keeper of the wardrobe.

By p.s.

Feb. 28. Pardon to William de Neuport of Garton of the king's suit for having Westminster received Robert Sibbeson of Garton, who was outlawed for felony, and for having rescued the said Robert upon his arrest by the king's