March 6. Pardon, at the request of Richard Stury, one of the knights of the Westminster. king's chamber, to Walter Dekne, called 'Gary,' of Wolavyngton, of the king's suit for the death of John London, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

March 22. Grant, for life or until further order, to Burial de Jupleu, 'chivaler,' Westminster. in consideration of the homage and fealty which he has done to the king, of 50 marks yearly at the Exchequer. By p.s.
The like to Daniel de Sayle, 'chivaler.' By the same writ.

March 26. Pardon to Adam Bamford of the king's suit for the death of Richard Eltham. Frere, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

March 26. Presentation of Henry de Wircestre, warden of the free chapel Eltham. of Alwerton, in the diocese of Bath and Wells, to the church of Pembrugg, in the diocese of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of Roger de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March, who held in chief, being in his hand; on an exchange of benefices with William de Odecombe. By p.s.

March 9. Nomination to the abbot and convent of Sibton of Adam de Blofeld, Westminster. chaplain, for presentation by them to the vicarage of the church of Thomas de Burton, the grant made to him by Francus de Hale, 'chivaler,' of the manor of Weston, co. Southampton, with the advowson of the church and other appurtenances, for the term of his (Frank's) life at an annual rent of 10 marks; the said manor having been granted to Frank for life by Henry, late duke of Lancaster, by the king's licence.

March 18. Licence for Brother Sampson Trigall, prior of the priory of Westminster. Apuldercombe, to whom the king by letters patent lately committed the keeping of the said priory and its possessions at a yearly farm of 80 marks for as long as the war in France should last, to make stay within the realm where he pleases and to lease lands and tenements pertaining to the priory for a term of years in aid of the payment of the farm, so that he maintain the number of monks and servants anciently ordained, find the chantries, divine services, alms and other charges incumbent on the priory, keep the houses and buildings of
