March 22. Grant, for life or until further order, to Gerald Rolbuk, 'chivaler,' Westminster, for good service and liege homage done by him, of 100 marks yearly at the Exchequer, on surrender by him of previous letters patent, dated 7 December last, granting him 40l. yearly at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Grant for life to Robert Nameur, in consideration of homage and fealty done by him to the king and in compensation of an annual rent which he had for life of Charles, the king's adversary of France, with the king's licence, which rent he has surrendered on account of such homage done to the king, of 600 florins with the shield yearly at the Exchequer, or their equivalent in other money current within the realm of England.

By p.s.

April 6. Licence for John Sloo, William Somerwell, Thomas Knapp, Walter Westminster, Derby, William Stelard, Anketil Moygne and John Dodyng, owners of certain ships of Bristol arrested to go at the king's wages upon the sea on the king's service for the defence of the realm against the king's enemies of France, to buy wheat, flesh, fish, ale and other victuals for the munition of the said ships in England and Wales.

By p.s.

April 3. Grant, for life or until further order, to Alice late the wife of John de Westminster, Cestre, for long service, of 10l. yearly of the issues of the manor of Haveryng-atte-Boure, on surrender by her of previous letters patent, dated 30 June in the king's thirtieth year, granting her and her late husband, who has gone the way of all flesh, 10 marks yearly of the farm due to the king from the hundred of Kynton, co. Warwick.

By p.s.

April 10. Presentation of Richard Trembroth, chaplain, to the vicarage Westminster of the church of St. Senare, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Exeter.

April 10. Stephen Pentecost, going beyond seas by the king's licence, has Westminster letters nominating William de Pylkton and Robert Cruchoun as his attorneys in England for one year.

April 18. John, abbot of Fourneys, staying in England, has letters nominating Westminster Roger de Preston, his fellow-monk, and Richard de Preston as his attorneys in Ireland for three years.

Robert de Far[yngton] received the attorneys by licence of the chancellor.

The same abbot, going to Ireland by the king's licence, has letters nominating John de Saurby, his fellow-monk, and William de Berdescye as his attorneys in England for one year.

March 28. Licence for the prior and canons of Elsyngspitel, London, to acquire Eltham lands and rents to the value of 20l. yearly, as well lands in the city and suburbs of London held of the king in burgage, as also lands elsewhere not held of the king.

By p.s.

April 20. Pardon, at the request of Robert de Grenacres, knight, to Thomas Westminster, son of Robert le Reede of Pudessey of the king's suit for the death of