June 24. Commission to Edmund de Thorp, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk,
Westminster. John de Berneye, Reynold de Eccles and John de Lakynghethe, keepers of the peace, and others the king's lieges in the county of Suffolk,—on complaint by William Lyth, James Henrisson, Thomas Marcher, John Wode, Thomas Recyvet, John Scot, Adam de Dalgarnok, Walter Gopeld, Simon del Abbeye, Alan Hog and Robert Clerk, merchants of Scotland, that whereas the said William, James, Thomas, John, Thomas, John and Adam freighted a ship of William Mone called la Seint Marie of Seland, and the said Walter, Andrew (sic), William Gopeld (sic), Simon, Alan and Robert Clerk a ship of Florence Johannesson of Flanders called le Seint Anne of Cagent, at Le Sclose for passage to Scotland, and the said ships were driven by tempest to Kyrkele Rode and there broken and the goods cast ashore, and although Robert Clerk de Lyth and Richard de Waldalston escaped alive from the ship called la Seint Anne and William Mone from the other ship, claimed their goods, and seized them for the use of the said merchants, nevertheless certain evildoers of those parts carried away the said goods and did other enormities against the form of the truce lately made with David le Bruys of Scotland,—to make inquisition in the said county of the names of the said evildoers and into whose hands the goods have come, seize into the king's hand the said goods in whosesoever hands they are in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk and Essex, or their value out of the goods of those who occupy the same, and deliver them to the merchants; also to arrest and commit to prison all who refuse to deliver such goods occupied by them until they make fitting satisfaction to the merchants.

June 30. Commission to Richard Mey of Hampton, master of a ship called Westminster. la Rodecogge, to arrest and take 100 fit mariners and put them in the said ship at the king's wages to go therein on the king's service; also to arrest and take to the castle of Wynchestre, there to be kept until further order touching their deliverance, Nicholas Gote of Hampton, John Pete of Hethe, Robert Baldewyn of Depedale, John Tul of Hoke, Thomas atte Halle of Tychefeld, William Tonnere of Langeston and William Chapeleyn of Sedlesham, mariners, and all others who were lately arrested by him to go on the king's service and refused to go on the sea in such service after receiving the king's wages, as well as all who shall be contrariant to him in the execution of this present commission.
