Hungerford, his special attorney, and that afterwards the mayor and citizens demised in fee to John Marlebergh a plot of 4 perches, to William Hele a plot of 4 perches, and to Nicholas de Cherdestoke and John Gillyngham a plot of 4 perches, and the two first built a shop each and the last two a shop between them on the said plots, each of which shops is worth 10s. yearly, and that the said tenements are parcel of the city of Salisbury, which is held in chief as parcel of the temporalities of the said bishopric of the grant of the king's progenitors, and that the said alienations were made without the king's licence so that the tenements are forfeit to him and have been seized into his hand by the escheator; the king, in consideration that the premises were of old time of the right of the church of Salisbury as parcel of the temporalities of the bishopric, and on account of his reverence for God Almighty and the Blessed Virgin Mary, in honour of whom the said church is founded, has granted the tenements to God, the Blessed Mary and the said bishop, to hold as his predecessors have held the same. By p.s.

Oct. 28. Licence, for 1 mark paid to the king by John de Stepyng of Westminster, for him to enfeoff Thomas Bullok of Edelesburgh of a toft, 40 acres of land and 6 acres of wood in Edelesburgh, held in chief.

Oct. 29. Pardon to John de Wandesford of Westwyk of the king's suit for the rape of Elizabeth late the wife of Alexander de Moubray, 'chivaler,' said to have been done before 26 May last, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Oct. 28. Presentation of Bartholomew Frensh, parson of the church of Bernyngham Curszoun, in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Bauseye, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Eye being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Roger Stevene.

Oct. 26. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Denise de Ty to the prioress and convent of Campesse, of a messuage, 86½ acres of land, 9½ acres of meadow, 4 acres of pasture, 7 acres of wood and 6s. 3d. of rent in Graneford and Swyftmygge, not held in chief, which are of the yearly value of 31s. 3d. beyond the said rent, as appears by an inquisition made by John de Rokewode, escheator in the county of Suffolk, to hold the anniversary of William de Hoo, knight, John de Hoo, William de Hoo, and Emma de Hoo on 5 October, and her own anniversary on the same day when she shall have departed this life, and to celebrate divine service yearly on that day for the souls of the above-mentioned, the prioress distributing the profits of the premises, beyond the necessary costs of the said anniversaries, among the nuns equally for their habit and clothes, to hold as of the value of 5 marks yearly in part satisfaction of the 10l. of land and rent which the prioress and convent had the king's licence to acquire.

Nov. 4. Francis Crompe, clerk, staying in England, has letters nominating William de Boltham, clerk, and John Bluet as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. Th. de Newenham received the attorneys.
