Lands before Easter in the king's forty-third year for the defence of Ireland, nor did the said Hugh come or send men by reason of his said reversion although he was of full age at the time of the proclamation of the ordinance; the king, of special grace, has pardoned the said forfeiture and has granted that the earl may hold the premises as above, as well as the issues thereof pertaining to the king by reason of the forfeiture. He has also granted licence for the earl to enfeoff Hugh of the said lordship of Cawelyn and to surrender to him the other premises.

Mandate in pursuance to William de Wyndesore, lieutenant in Ireland.

Nov. 14. Licence, for 1 mark paid to the king by Robert Wykes of Bristol, chaplain, for the alienation in mortmain by him of a garden in the suburb of Bristol, held of the king in free burgage, to Roger le White, parson of the church of St. Stephen, Bristol, to find a lamp burning in the said church before the high altar at the time of mass and other canonical hours according to his ordinance.

Nov. 6. Licence, for 23l. paid to the king by Walter de Frompton of Bristol, for the alienation in mortmain by him of 2 messuages in Bristol, held of the king in free burgage, to two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. John the Baptist, Bristol, for the safe estate of himself and Isabel, his wife, for their souls when they shall have departed this life, and for the souls of their ancestors and friends.

Nov. 15. Pardon to Richard de Olmestede, the younger, of his outlawry in the county of Suffolk for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer the king and William de Lavenham wherefore he withdrew from the service of the latter before the end of the term agreed on against the form of the ordinance; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as Robert de Thorpe, chief justice, has certified.

Nov. 18. Pardon in like terms to Geoffrey Gillot of Stokton of his outlawry in the hustling of London for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Nicholas Pluket touching a plea that he render him an account of the time when he was his receiver.

Nov. 17. Pardon to Hugh son of John Walker of Burlay of the king's suit for the death of John Mawson of Burlay; as the king has learned by the record of William de Fyncheden and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of York castle, that he killed him in self-defence.

Nov. 17. Pardon in like terms to William Barker of Kyrkstall for the death of Robert son of John Totty.

Nov. 21. Licence for the prior and convent of Muchelneye to elect an abbot in the room of Thomas, deceased.

Nov. 21. Ratification of the estate of Richard Spicer, 'le filz,' of Bristol, as prebendary of the prebend of Westharpetre in the cathedral church of Wells.
