1370.

Nov. 24. Grant to William Whappelade, one of the yeomen of the king’s chamber, of whatever pertains to the king of year, day and waste of the lands late of Robert Bacon in Dikkeleburgh, Therston, Fornesete, Waketon and Stratton, co. Norfolk, on account of a felony said to have been perpetrated by Robert in that county, for which he is outlawed; and of all his goods forfeited to the king on that account. Westminster.

Nov. 20. Grant, for life or until further order, to the king’s servant, John Duk, whom the king has now made one of his esquires, 10l. yearly at the Exchequer that he may the more fittingly maintain his estate; on surrender by him of letters patent dated 19 September in the king’s thirty-fifth year, when he was yeoman of office of the household, of 100s. yearly. Westminster.

Nov. 27. Henry, prior of Christ Church, Twynham, to whom the king, on account of his weakness of body, granted licence to make general attorneys, has appointed John le Olde and Henry Gussych as such attorneys; and the king, at his instance, has granted that the said attorneys may make others to sue and defend in their place, for one year. Westminster.

Nov. 26. Grant, for life or until further order, to Hugh de Escote, ‘chivaler,’ of 50 marks yearly at the Exchequer. Westminster.

Nov. 28. Presentation of John de Hanney, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Sutton, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Plympton being lately in his hand for certain causes. Westminster.

Nov. 26. Grant to Robert de Knolles, now on the king’s service beyond seas, and Constance his wife, that they may have and hold a messuage in the parish of All Hallows Berlyngchirche, London, sometime of Thomas de Brandon, lately acquired by them, absolutely discharged and quit from that portion of a sum of 10,000L. current in demand at the Exchequer upon the said Thomas, Richard de Causton, Thomas Noyningham and Hermann Mynter, for certain causes still remaining undecided, which might be charged against the said messuage if the said sum were at any future time to be adjudged to be due to the king or his heirs; provided always that the remainder of the said sum, beyond the portion charged against the said messuage, be levied not from that messuage but from the others according to the apportionment of the sum, and that none of the said remainder be withdrawn from the king by virtue of this grant. Westminster.

Dec. 2. Ratification of the estate of Robert de Grandewell as vicar of the church of Netherbury and Bemenstre. Westminster.

Nov. 26. Grant for life to Nicholas Plkct, citizen of London, of the office of the tronage and pesage of wool in the same city, taking such fees and wages as John Wroth took in that office; the latter having surrendered his letters patent, dated 27 June in the king’s thirty-fifth year, granting him the office in succession to John Malewayn. Westminster.
