

1370.

Membrane 9d—cont.

the king on behalf of Richard, earl of Arundel, and Eleanor his wife, that whereas they hold as the dower of Eleanor a passage across the water of Humbre at Barton on Humbre together with the profits, the reversion being to John son and heir of Henry de Beaumont, a minor in the king's ward, and they and all other lords of the town of Barton have time out of mind held the same without any other person having ever in times past had any passage across the said water within the metes of Redclyf and Twygraynes, certain persons, planning to annoy the earl and Eleanor and to disinherit the heir, have newly made a passage at Barowe within the said metes.

MEMBRANE 8d.

Dec. 3. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Wychyngham and Westminster. John de Berneye touching many trespasses, oppressions, extortions, damages, grievances and excesses perpetrated by Edmund de Mauteby, clerk, and a great multitude of evildoers associated with him, in the county of Norfolk; as the king has learned that no remedy has yet been applied by the keepers of the peace or the king's ministers in that county.

MEMBRANE 6d.

Oct. 12. Commission to John de Berney, Edmund de Gourney and John Westminster. Roukewod to make inquisition in the county of Norfolk, in the presence and by the information of William Brouke, bailiff of the king's fees in that county, touching wards, marriages, reliefs, escheats, forfeitures and other profits concealed, withdrawn, occupied or detained from the king, and to seize all such and keep them safely until further order.

1371.

Jan. 16. The like to William Wyngefeld, John de Rokewode, William Westminster. Berard and Thomas 'othe Oke,' in the county of Suffolk.

The like to Robert de Tye, 'chivaler,' John de Bampton, John Olyver and John Welde, in the counties of Essex and Hertford.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Jan. 14. Commission to Emery de Shirmond, John de Aylesbury, Nicholas Westminster. de Styuecle, John de Olneye and John de Repynghale to make inquisition in the counties of Bedford, Buckingham, Cambridge and Huntingdon touching wards, marriages, reliefs, services, rents, escheats, liberties, chattels of felons, fugitives and outlaws, forfeitures and other profits and emoluments concealed and withdrawn from the king; also touching escapes of robbers and prisoners, and fines, ransoms and other unjust takings received by sheriffs, keepers of gaols, constables and other ministers of the king for such escapes; also touching purprestures of lands and liberties, and lands and rents, held in chief, alienated without licence or granted in mortmain.

By C.

The like to Thomas de Lodelowe, Robert Bealknap, William Pympe and John de Bisshopeston, in the county of Kent.

Jan. 16. Commission to Robert de Tye, 'chivaler,' John de Bampton, Westminster. John Olyver and John Welde, escheator in the counties of Essex