in the chapel of the Holy Trinity, Worcester, for their safe estate and that of all benefactors of the chantry, and for their souls when they shall have departed this life.

Grant to the bailiffs, citizens and good men of Worcester of murage for nine years.

Licence, for 20l. paid to the king by John Grey of Rotherfeld, for the alienation in mortmain by Richard de Chaddesleigh, John Darderne, Thomas Gerveys and Walter le Yonge of an acre of land in Estclaydon and the advowson of the church of that town to the prior and convent of Bustlesham to find a canon as chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the priory church for the safe estate of the said John Grey and for his soul when he shall have departed this life, and for the souls of his ancestors and heirs; and licence for the prior and convent to appropriate the church.

March 2. Westminster.

Licence for Robert de Plumpton to sell in gross or by parcels to any ministers of John, earl of Pembroke, and Edmund, earl of March, who wish to buy for the munition of the earls' castles in Wales, 200 quarters of beans of his own growth.

Presentation of Robert Falewell, chaplain, to the church of Dupford, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the knights' fees and advowsons of churches of Thomas de Courteney, 'chivaler,' deceased, who held in chief, being in his hand.

Whereas the late queen Philippa granted for life to John Wrottyng, Cecily, his wife, and Isabel, their daughter, 2 messuages, 4 acres of land and a grove of underwood in Croydon which William Willes, then the queen's bondman of her manor of Banstede, had acquired in fee, and which thus came into the said queen's hand, to hold at a yearly rent of 6d.; the king, because the said manor and premises are in his hands by the death of the queen, confirms the said grant reserving the like rent to himself.
