Membrane 24—cont.

March 22. Westminster. Pardon to John de Kyngeston of Denton, the younger, of the king's suit for having, on the night of Friday after the feast of St. Faith the Virgin in the king's forty-third year, broken the close and house of Robert Edward of Aldebergh at Aldebergh, and stolen 10 marks of gold and silver belonging to the said Robert, whereof he is indicted; and of any consequent outlawry.

By p.s.

Membrane 23.

March 17. Westminster. Pardon to John le Rous of Raggeleye, late under-sheriff of Warwick and Leicester, of all escapes of felons, whether taken with the mainour or on suspicion, and whether let out by him at mainprise or on bail.

By p.s.

March 22. Westminster. Grant in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Stanleye of the farm of 24s. yearly which William Putman is held to render for a toft, 40 acres of land and 12 acres of meadow in Berewykbasset and Bobboten, co. Wilts, late of Hugh le Despenser, earl of Winchester, which the king granted him for life, and of the reversion of the premises expectant on William's demise, to pray continually for the soul of the late queen Philippa, and to celebrate yearly in the conventual church her obit or anniversary day.

By p.s.

March 23. Westminster. Pardon, at the asking of Nicholas de Tamworth, captain of the town of Calais, to Hugh Braundys of the king's suit for the burglary or breaking of the house of Robert de la Ryvere and for the rape of Alice, his daughter, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlaws.

By p.s.

March 27. Westminster. Grant in fee to Master William Herland, the king's carpenter, for long service, of a tenement in the parish of St. Mary Bothawe, in the ward of Douugate, London, sometime of John son of John Adam, 'spicer,' called Hachesham, held of the king in burgage, which is of the clear yearly value of 40s. and came into the king's hands as escheat because the said John son of John died without heir, as is found by an inquisition taken by Simon de Mordon, late mayor and escheator in London.

By p.s.

By p.s.

Jan. 27. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Redynge by Henry Lambyn, vicar of the church of St. Laurence, Redynge, and John Kersey, chaplain, of 2 messuages, 2 stalls with booths (tabernis) newly built, and 14s. 11d. of rent issuing from a tenement which Richard de Appelby and Margery, his wife, hold of them for life in Redynge; by the said John, of 2 acres of land called 'kentesputtes' in Collee by Tighilhurst; by Henry and John, of the reversion of the above-mentioned messuage expectant on the demise