pertains to him, and Maud of her damages; the king has pardoned him the said outlawry, as he has now satisfied Maud of her damages as Godfrey has certified, provided that he surrender to prison before the justices and satisfy the king of his ransom.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and convent of the Holy Trinity, Norwich, by William de Bergh, parson of the church of Cantele, and William Secheford, chapelain, of a toft, 51 acres of land, 2 acres of meadow, and 4d. of rent in Babourgh, Costesseye, Asgeres-thorp and Great Melton, co. Norfolk, by the same William de Bergh and John de Leycestre, parson of the church of Crounegthorpe, of 24 acres of land in Wyckleweode, in the same county, and by John Cordewaner of Eye, chapelain, Benedict de Redyngge and Robert Baker of a messuage, 6 acres of land, an acre of pasture, 2 acres of wood and the freedom of a fold in Hoxne and Denham, co. Suffolk, not held in chief, all which are of the yearly value, beyond the said rent, of 16s. 10d., as appears by divers inquisitions taken by John de Rokewode, escheator in the said counties, to hold in satisfaction of 50s. of the 10l. of land and rent which Edward II, at the request of John, bishop of Norwich, granted the said prior and convent licence to acquire for the sustenance of four chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. John the Evangelist, then newly built within the said priory.

Protection and safe conduct for one year for Richard de Overton, of the order of St. John of Jerusalem, who is appointed by the prior of Rodes, Grand Master of the order, to visit the houses and places of the hospital in the king's realm and land, and purposes to make his visitation accordingly.

Licence, for 8 marks paid to the king by Nicholas de Exton, for William Olneye, Henry Hale and Thomas Virly to grant a messuage, 140 acres of land, 15 acres of pasture and 40s. of rent in the parish of St. Giles of the Lepers without the bar of the Old Temple, London, held in chief, to Nicholas, Katharine, his wife, Richard, his brother, John Curteys of Peterborough and the heirs of Nicholas; and for Richard and John to release their estate in the premises to Nicholas.

Grant, at the supellation of the king's councillor, Guy de Briene, and for long service rendered by him, to Master John de Briene, his brother, prebendary of the prebend of Lusk in the church of Dublin, who, by pretext of the late ordinance by the king and his great council for the defence and safety of Ireland, has been hindered from having, or bringing to England, the fruits, profits and revenues of the said prebend, that he may henceforth have such fruits and bring them to England or Wales and dispose of them at his pleasure, notwithstanding the said ordinance and his absence from Ireland. By p.s.

Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas de Rokeby, knight, going to Ireland to stay there in the company of William de Wyndesore, the king's lieutenant. The like for John de Rokeby, esquire. By bill of p.s.