

1371.

Membrane 31d—cont.

Walter Wodeburgh, king's serjeant-at-arms, Nicholas Styuecle, sheriff of Cambridge and Huntingdon, and John de Aylesbury, sheriff of Bedford and Buckingham, to choose and array 40 men-at-arms and 100 archers in those counties.

MEMBRANE 30d.

Feb. 23. Commission to John de Bukton of Bukton by Flaynburgh, Peter Westminster. de Bukton, Nicholas Paynel, John del Chambre and Thomas Knotte to take and arrest John de Brunne and Robert Andreuson, lay brethren of the house of Watton, of the order of St. Gilbert, who are vagabond in secular attire and wander from country to country, and to deliver them to the prior of that house for chastisement.

MEMBRANE 28d.

Feb. 13. Commission of oyer and terminer to Luke de Ponynges, William Westminster. de Wichingham, John de Foxele, Edmund de Chelreye, Robert Bealknap, Walter de Haywod, Henry de Percehay and Michael Skillyng, on complaint by William, bishop of Winchester, the chancellor, that certain evildoers, while he was under the king's protection and engaged on the business of the realm, broke his parks at Merdon, Twyford, Clere, Overton, Sutton, Echenewell, Moene, Waltham, Fareham, Chiriton, Bitterne, Sevenhampton, Assh, Polhampton and Dene, co. Southampton, entered his free warrens and chaces there and hunted therein without licence, fished in his several fisheries, took fish therefrom, and carried away deer from the parks and chaces, and hares, conies, pheasants and partridges from the warrens and chaces. By K.

Feb. 13. The like to Luke de Ponynges, William de Wichyngham, John de Westminster. Foxele, Edmund de Chelreye, Robert Bealknap, Henry de Percehay and Walter de Perle, on complaint by the prior of St. Swithun's, Winchester, that certain evildoers entered his free warrens in divers places in the county of Southampton, hunted therein without licence, and took away hares, conies, pheasants and partridges. By K.

MEMBRANE 27d.

March 18. Association of John de Lakyngheth in the commission of the Westminster. peace to William de Ufford, earl of Suffolk, and his fellows, in the county of Suffolk, in which commission Robert de Kedyngton was afterwards associated.

May 16. The like of Godfrey Folejaumbe and Edmund de Clippesby in the Westminster. commission of the peace to the same earl and his fellows, in the county of Norfolk.

MEMBRANE 26d.

March 6. Commission of oyer and terminer to Nicholas Burnel, Roger le Westminster. Straunge, John Moubray, Robert Corbet and William Banastre, on complaint by John Routhale of Lodelowe that, whereas he placed goods to the value of 200 marks in a chamber in the manse of Robert le Heustere at Shrewsbury for safe keeping, and the door of the chamber was secured by his lock and sealed with his own