

1371.

Membrane 21d—cont.

And afterwards, on 28 August, Edmund de Appelby, 'chivaler,' was associated in the commission in the county of Leicester.

And afterwards, on 12 December, the said Edmund has the king's writ not to intermeddle in that office.

April 2. Commission to John Bigot, Richard de Rouclif, Thomas Mauley
Westminster. and William Dryng of Lokyngton to arrest Thomas de Haukesgard, monk of the abbey of Whiteby of the order of St. Benedict, and professed of that house, who has withdrawn without licence therefrom and is vagabond to the peril of his soul and the scandal of the order, as William, abbot of Whiteby, has signified; and to deliver him to the said abbot for chastisement according to the discipline and rule of the order.

April 6. Commission to Aymer de Atheles, Thomas de Musgrave,
Westminster. escheator in the county of Northumberland, John Heron, Roger de Wydryngton and Gilbert de Elwyk to make inquisition in the said county touching an information that Edward de Letham, 'chivaler,' deceased, to whom the king committed under a certain form the keeping of certain lands in Ethale, co. Northumberland, late of Robert de Maners, who held in chief, until the full age of the heir, and certain others who afterwards had the same keeping, have made wastes, sales and destructions of lands, houses, woods and gardens in the premises. By C.

MEMBRANE 20d.

March 22. Commission of array in the town of Kyngeston-upon-Hull to the Westminster. mayor, Roger de Fulthorp, Peter de Grymesby and John de Wilton. By C.

March 22. Association of Thomas Chaundos, Richard de la Bere, John de Westminster. Eynesford and John de Stratton in the late commission of the peace and of array in the county of Hereford to Nicholas de Audeleye and his fellows. By C.

March 23. Commission to Adam de Hoghton, Thomas de Molyneux and the Westminster. sheriff of Lancaster to arrest William de Chorle, indicted of very many falsities and deceptions perpetrated against the king and John, duke of Lancaster, who is lying hid in the said county and without it so that he cannot be punished. He is to be kept safely in the prison of Lancaster castle by the sheriff and had before William de Fyncheden and his fellows, justices appointed to inspect and determine the indictments against him, at their first sitting.

MEMBRANE 18d.

April 20. Commission to Richard, earl of Arundel, the abbot of La Bataille,
Westminster. Andrew Peverell, Nicholas Loveygne, Edward de Sancto Johanne, John de Waleys, William de Ecchyngham, Robert Beleknap and William de Batesford,—on information that galleys and other warships are hastening in no small number to England from distant parts, prepared to destroy the shipping of the realm, invade the land and do what mischief they can,—to guard all ports and sea shores in the county of Sussex where ships can put to land, array