1371.
June 21. Ratification of the estate of Giles Lovet as parson of the church of Kibbeworth, in the diocese of Lincoln. By p.s.

July 1. Pardon to Robert de Rothelay of the king's suit for the death of William son of Robert Watson; as the king has learned by the record of William de Fyncheden and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of York castle, that he killed him in self-defence.

July 1. Pardon to William de Kyngeston of Lewes of his outlawry in the husting of London for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Walter atte Hoo of London, 'skynner,' and Alice his wife touching a plea of debt of 100 marks; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as William de Fyncheden, chief justice, has certified.

July 6. Revocation for certain causes of the presentation of Thomas Bache to the church of Kilbery. By C.

MEMBRANE 36.

June 20. Presentation of the said Thomas Bache to the church of Kilbery, in the diocese of Meath, in the king's gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of Roger de Mortuo Mari, late earl of March, who held in chief, being in his hand.

June 30. Whereas lately by the assent of the king's great council the king ordained for the defence of the realm of Ireland that every man having lordships, lands and possessions in the said land should come in person to Ireland or send men thereto according to the value of his possessions by Easter in the king's fortieth year on pain of forfeiture of his said possessions, and Nicholas Gernoun who held for life of the king's gift certain lands in the county of Dublin which came into the king's hands by the forfeiture of one John Cotere, 'chivaler,' did not come or send men according to the ordinance, whereupon the said lands were taken into the king's hand as forfeit during the life of Nicholas; the king of special grace has restored him the lands for life according to the effect of his previous grant to him. By p.s.

June 28. Licence, for £60l. paid to the king by Agnes late the wife of John Mautravers, 'chivaler,' for the alienation in mortmain by Robert de Sambourne, chaplain, and John de Coston, chaplain, of the manor of Chelreye and 7 acres of land in Ledecombe Regis, not held in chief, to John Sonynghull, parson of the church of Lichet Mautravers, to find three chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the parish church of Lichet Mautravers for the safe estate of Agnes and for her soul after her death, and for the souls of John Mautravers, 'chivaler,' and the fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and ancestors of John and Agnes.

July 3. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Master John de Braunsepath, Thomas Palmere, parson of the church of Blaunkeney, and John Bakere, executors of the will of Richard de Whitewell, canon of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, of 15 messuages, 10 bovates and 73 acres of land, 31 acres of meadow, 14 acres of wood,
