1371.

Membrane 31—cont.

the land and heir of Thomas de Bradeston, who held in chief, being in his hand; on an exchange of churches with Richard Apelderham.

By p.s.

July 12. Whereas, for 6s. 8d. paid to the king by Avice late the wife of Richard son of Ivo de Raghton, the king pardoned her her trespass in acquiring in fee a messuage and 15 acres of land in Raghton from John son of Henry de Raghton, who held them in chief, and entering therein without licence, and granted her licence to resume the same, which had been taken into his hand on account of that trespass; now, for 6s. 8d. paid to him by Richard Beaulien, he has granted licence for William Briswod, brother and heir of Avice, to enfeoff Richard of the premises.

July 12. Appointment of Robert Rous of Bristol and William de Notyngham of Bissheye to take 12 miners, stampers (boliarios) and smelters (meltarios) in the county of Somerset and put them to work in the king's mines of gold, silver, tin and lead in the county of Gloucester, which the king has demised to them at farm, to stay there as long as shall be necessary, at their wages. By C.

July 1. Presentation of Robert de Melton to the church of Alkham, in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Folkston being in his hand on account of the war with France.

July 7. Pardon to Thomas son of John Gurry of Tikhull, for good service in the parts of France in the company of Richard Syward, late one of the purveyors for the household, when the king was there making war, as William de Farlee, then keeper of the wardrobe, has testified, of the king's suit for the death of John Deverwyk, killed before Michaelmas in the king's thirty-third year, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

July 16. Pardon to John son of Richard Byndyng of Leghton of the king's suit for having, in the king's eighteenth year, stolen a chalice, worth 20s., from the church of Leghton Busard, whereof is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

July 12. Pardon to John Symcok, the elder, of the king's suit for the theft of 3 swine of Walter atte Pette, worth 3s., the rape of Margaret wife of John Snell, the theft of a pot, a pan and a cauldron of brass of the said John, worth 40d., the theft of a sheep of Hugh Bishopp, worth 12d., the theft of 5 capons of Joan late the wife of Andrew Bewell, worth 16d., and the theft of a horse of Emma late the wife of Geoffrey Bewell, worth 8s., whereof is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawries. By p.s. [26798,]

The like to Nicholas Symcok. By the same writ.

July 10. Pardon of special grace to John Dobbes of Lopham of his outlawry for having, at Herleston on Thursday after the feast of St. Margaret