Membrane 28—cont.

1371.

Aug. 5. Westminster.

Presentation of Richard de Raundes to the church of Arkesay, in the diocese of York, in the king's gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of John de Moubray, who held in chief, being in his hand.

By p.s.

On the petition of John Bauduin, monk of the monastery of St. Martin des Champs by Paris, chaplain of the king's daughter Isabel, countess of Bedford, showing that, whereas the prior of the said monastery has sent him to England to the priory of Barstable, a cell of the said monastery, to celebrate divine service there, he fears damage of body and goods on account of the war with France; the king has taken him into his special protection for two years.

Grant to the king's clerk, Robert de Crull, of the keeping of the woods, chases and warrens in the isle of Axholme late of John de Moubray, who held in chief, which keeping is in the king's disposal by the death of John Noble, who had the same for life of the gift of John father of the said John de Moubray and of the king's confirmation, to hold until the full age of the heir together with the fees, wages and profits pertaining thereto.

Grant for life to the king's servant, Jordan de Darton, for long service, of a messuage in the parish of St. Mary Collechereche, London, late of Richard Tyngewyk, 'ismongere,' deceased, held of the king in free burgage and of the clear yearly value of 46s. 8d., which came into the king's hand as escheat because Richard was a bastard and died without heir of himself, as is found by an inquisition taken by James Andrewe, late mayor and escheator of London.

By p.s.

Inspeccimus and confirmation of letters patent under the seal of Ireland, dated at Cashel, 14 June in the king's forty-fifth year, granting for life to Walter de la Botellerie the keeping of the hamlet of Nicholeston, in the king's hand by reason of the forfeiture of Eustace le Poer, which is partly wasted and destroyed by the king's Irish enemies and rebels, at the rent of a mark yearly at the Exchequer of Ireland.

By K.

Pardon, at the request of Walter Huwel, to William de Brettevill, 'chivaler,' for good service in the parts beyond seas in the company of Walter, of the king's suit for the death of John Hunte, whereof he is indicted or appealled, and of any consequent outlawry.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's clerk, Emery de Shirlond, of the prebend of Tetenhale and Compton in the church or chapel of Tetenhale.

Commission to Hugh de Wrottesle, Henry de Busshebury, Clement de Billeston and the sheriff of Stafford to induct him.

The like to Hugh de Wrottesle, Henry de Busshebury, Richard Levesson and the sheriff.

Aug. 10. Westminster.

Grant that out of the tenths of the dioceses of York and Durham granted to the king for three years by the clergy, satisfaction shall be made to Thomas, bishop of Durham, of the 2,000 marks lent by him to the king and received in the king's stead by Richard le Scrop, the treasurer. [Fadera.]