Nov. 10. Westminster. Presentation of William de Swynflet, dean of the deannery of Cranewys, in the diocese of Norwich, to the church of Little Thrillowe, in the same diocese; on an exchange of benefices with Robert de Melton.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Presentation of William de Sandiacre, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of St. Mary, Notyngham, void by the resignation of John de Stapulford and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Lenton being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Presentation of William de Bytham, vicar of the church of Norton by Galby, to the church of St. Nicholas, Notyngham, in the king's hand as above; on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Lorday.

Nov. 10. Westminster. Whereas John, bishop of Bath, in the king's twenty-fifth year, long before he obtained the estate of bishop, was outlawed at the king's suit in the county of Cornwall and the hustings of London under the name of John de Harewell, clerk, for non-appearance before the king to answer touching citations, appeals, inhibitions and other matters prejudicial to the king and his crown procured by him in derogation of judgements rendered for the king about the recovery of his presentations to the archdeaconry of Cornwall and the prebend which John de Sancto Paulo lately held in the church of St. Peter, Exeter; the king, in consideration of his manifold services to him, has pardoned him the said outlawries and contempt and whatever pertains to him for that cause, has granted him his goods and the issues of his lands which might be said to be forfeited from the time of the promulgations of the outlawries, and has restored him to the same estate as he had before the said promulgations.
