1372.

Membrane 5—cont.

Jan. 20. Westminster. Presentation of John Wisebeech, parson of the church of Esthodleye, in the diocese of Chichester, to the vicarage of the church of Stenyng, in the same diocese, of the jurisdiction exempt of the abbot of Fécamp, in the king’s gift on account of the war with France: on an exchange of benefices with John Abbe.

Nicholas de Spaigne, clerk, received the attorneys.

Jan. 22. Westminster. Presentation of Robert de Willughby to the church of Pykworth, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of John, late earl of Kent, who held in chief, being in his hand.

Jan. 20. Westminster. Exemplification, at the request of the king’s esquire, John de Beauchamp, of letters patent, dated 1 January in the king’s thirteeneighth year, in his favour, which have been accidentally lost. By K.

1371.

Dec. 15. Westminster. Whereas Thomas Snodilond, late parson of the church of St. Botolph by Billyngesgate, London, who died seised in his demesne as of fee of a tenement in the parish of St. Mary atte Hill in the ward of Billyngesgate, two small tenements with two shops and sollers built thereon in the parish of St. Leonard, Estchepe, in Bridge ward, and a tenement with a small garden in the parish of St. Peter by the Austin Friars in the ward of Bredstrete, held of the king in free burgage, bequeathed the same to Andrew Pykeman, Ralph de Morton, John de Pounttreyt, the elder, and Thomas de Mordon, chaundeler, parishioners of his church, and their successors, to sustain and find a chaplain to celebrate divine service for ever in the said church for the soul of Thomas and for other souls, and for the safe estate of the brethren of the fraternity of the chapel in the church, and the said Andrew, Ralph, John and Thomas took the rents and applied them as above, as appears by an inquisition taken by John Lovekyn, late mayor and escheator of London, and the said tenements, being alienated in mortmain without the king’s licence, have been taken into his hand as forfeit; the king, for 30l. paid by the said Andrew and Thomas de Mordon, wardens of the fabrie of the said church, has granted the said tenements to them and their successors in aid of the sustenance of a chaplain to be found by them and the parishioners to celebrate according to the terms of the bequest.

Dec. 21. Westminster. Grant to the king’s clerk, Henry de Wakesfeld, of the archdeaconry of Norhampton, in the king’s gift by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of Lincoln.

By p.s.

The like to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Mary, Lincoln.