July 20. Westminster. Commission to John le Marchant, bailiff of the island of Gernesey, and Peter Gyoun, serjeant-at-arms, to make inquisition in that island and in the islands of Gersseey, Serk and Aureneye touching all wardships, marriages, reliefs, escheats and other profits in those islands withdrawn and concealed from the king.

July 23. Westminster. Commission to Richard Tempeust, John Heron, Robert de Hagistone and Thomas de Riddale to make inquisition in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in the presence of Master John de Bolton, the chamberlain thereof, touching an information on behalf of John de la Chambre, tenant of a certain rent of 40s. in the said town, that the said chamberlain, asserting that one Henry Batel held the rent of the king and died seized thereof in his demesne as of fee, and without heir, and that the rent ought for that cause to pertain to the king as escheat, distrains the said John de la Chambre for the said rent, whereas Henry never had any estate therein.

July 28. Westminster. Commission to Thomas de Beverle, William Frost of Beverle and Reynold Maundevil to arrest and bring before the council John Latymer, Hugh Askak, Nicholas Fissman and Bartholomew Blaksale, 'cook,' suspected of disobedience and rebellion against the king at Norwich, who have withdrawn from the said town and are vagabond in the county of York and elsewhere within the realm.

July 31. Westminster. Commission to Edmund Rose, Thomas Fakenham, serjeant-at-arms, and John Marlebergh, reciting that—whereas it was lately found by inquisition taken by Edmund and others that Roger son of Richard Stansak of Sutton has been an idiot from birth, and that Isabel, his mother, deceased, held for life of his inheritance 2 messuages, a carucate of land and 20½ acres of meadow in Sutton Courtenay, of the yearly value of 46s. 4½d., and that John Spaty, vicar of the church of Bradeley, John de Middelton, chaplain, John de Evesham and John Marrey purchased the reversion of the premises from Roger, while an idiot,—the king ordered John Marrey, in whose keeping Roger was, to have him before the king in the Chancery at a day now passed to be examined there before the king and council, but the said John Marrey has cloigned Roger and keeps him in secret places, utterly refusing to have him before the king as ordered; and appointing them to take the said Roger and bring him before the king and council, and to seize the lands so alienated by him into the king's hand and keep them there until he has been examined.

Aug. 7. Westminster. Commission to Roger de Bellers, Simon de Leek, Thomas Molyneux, Richard Pontrell and John Totchill to survey the estate of the king's free chapel of Tykhill and the members thereof in the counties of York and Nottingham, make inquisition in those counties, in the presence of Master Richard Lescrop, to whom the king has
