1372.

Membrane 24—cont.

attorney and has granted him, his heirs, executors and assigns, the said sums, amounting to 10,000l., to be taken of the customs and subsidies in the port of London, to wit, of each sack of wool exported 20s., and wool-fells and hides in proportion, by indenture between him and the king’s customers in the said port as the said wools, wool-fells and hides are cocketted for export, until he be paid the whole sum; also one part of the cocked of the said port is to be in his hand until such payment, and no woos, hides or wool-fells are to pass from the port until they be cocketted with both parts. The king also promises that no abridgement of custom shall be given to any in the shipment of wools, hides, or wool-fells in any of the king’s ports, much less in the port of London, that neither John nor any other in his name shall be charged to account at the Exchequer for the receipt of the said 10,000l., that the customers in the said port shall have sufficient warrant to pay him the said proportion and shall be discharged on their account at the Exchequer by virtue of an indenture or acquittance by John of the receipt of the money, that John shall have sufficient warrant of the great and privy seals to all who need it for the receipt of the said sum without paying anything for the said seals and that no order, privy letter or signet shall be made by the chancellor, treasurer or other in disturbance of the above covenant.

By K. & C.

Aug. 10. Westminster.

Grant to the king’s esquire, John de Beauchamp, of the reversion of the sustenances now held for life of the king’s grant by Leo de Pertin in the abbey of Pershore and the priory of Wireestre. By bill of p.s.

Aug. 22. Preston.

Grant to the king’s servant, William Gambon, of the keeping of the manor of Hyton, called “Netherherhall,” co. Cambridge, which Robert de Thorp, “chivaler,” deceased, held for life of the inheritance of the heir of John de Moubray, who held in chief, a minor in the king’s ward, to hold until the full age of the said heir. By p.s.

Aug. 23. Preston Manor.

Pardon, at the request of Robert de Nevill, to William Kyng of Burghbrigg of the king’s suit for the death of William Couper of Erkenden, whereas he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.