1372.

Membranæ 14—cont.

in those parts in whose hands the sum to be distributed is, levy it by all ways and means, pay therefrom 33l. 15s. 6d. to the collectors of the subsidy and distribute the remainder among the townships of those parts by survey of Gilbert de Umfravill, earl of Angus.

Grant in tail to Ingram de Coucy, earl of Bedford, and Isabel, the king's daughter, his wife, of the reversion of the manors and lands which Joan, late the wife of John de Coupeland, holds for life, which reversion the king now has by grant of the said Ingram, together with knights' fees, advowsons, parks, forests, chases, woods, warrens, fisheries, moors, marshes, turbaries, meadows, feedings, pastures, services of tenants, free and bond, liberties, escheats, wards, marriages, reliefs, commodities, profits and all other appurtenances.

By p.s.

Sept. 20. Westminster.

Whereas on 1 October in the king's forty-fourth year the king committed to Richard, earl of Arundel, and Eleanor, his wife, the keeping of 40l. of rent in Barton upon Humber, late of Henry de Bello Monte, during the nonage of John, his son and heir, at a rent of 40l.; and on 21 November following the king pardoned them 40 marks of the rent on their undertaking to find sustenance for John: now, in consideration of the unwonted increase in the cost of his sustenance by reason of his advancing age, the king has pardoned them the remaining 20 marks.

By p.s.

Nov. 7. Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prioress and convent of Whiston by Worcester by John Growele and William Swonurton of a messuage and 20 acres of land in Worcester and Northwyk, and the reversions of 6 acres of land in Northwyk expectant on the demise of Simon Poche, a message in Worcester expectant on the demise of Agnes la Bakere and an acre of land in Northwyk which Walter Holebarwe holds for the life of William de Pideleswyk, which message, land and reversions are not held of the king and are of the yearly value of 13s. 4d. as is found by an inquisition taken by Henry Bruyn, escheator in the county of Worcester, to hold in satisfaction of 40s. of the 100s. of land and rent which the prioress and convent had the king's licence to acquire.

Nov. 10. Westminster.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by Benedict de Oulescroft to the prior and convent of Oulescroft of 12 messuages, 12 virgates of land and a rent of a pound of pepper in Sheynton, not held of the king, which are of the clear yearly value of 66s. 8d., as is found by an inquisition taken by John Hous, late escheator in the county of Leicester, to hold in satisfaction of 66s. 8d. of the 20l. of land and rent which the prior and convent had the king's licence to acquire.

In consideration that Margery le Chaumberlein of Hope Wolwyth, being appealed by one Geoffrey Robertes of Bestowaldostre of the larceny of 6 oxen of his, and being convicted thereof in the court of the city of Hereford before the bailiffs of the city and adjudged to be hanged to death according to the laws and customs of the realm and of the said city, was by virtue of that judgement hanged on St. Katharine's day last and let down as dead; and that she afterwards miraculously revived, as the king is informed by those in whom he has