Dec. 10. Westminster.
Presentation of Thomas Dymmok, chaplain of the chantry of St. John the Baptist in the church of Chippeham, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the vicarage of the church of Ellyngham, in the diocese of Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Elyngham being in his hand as above; on an exchange of benefices with Robert de Milverton.

Dec. 10. Westminster.
Whereas the king, on 25 April in his forty-fifth year, granted licence for Henry Werkman, merchant of Chichester, to load 60 sacks of wool only in the port of Chichester and take them to Middelburgh in Zeland or Durdragh in Holland, and John Wynnegod and William Morice, collectors of customs and subsidy in the said port, permitted him without licence to load 2,585 wool-fells beyond the 60 sacks and to take them to the said parts; the king, considering that the said Henry paid customs, subsidy and other duties on the said wool-fells beyond those due from the 60 sacks, and that the said collectors have answered thereof at the Exchequer, as Richard Lescrop, the treasurer, has certified, so that it has seemed to the king and council that the premises were done of negligence and not of evil intent, has pardoned the said Henry, John and William the trespasses done in the matter.
