Membrane 3—cont.

1373. reason of the priory of Toteney's being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with John de Aldeby.

1372.

Dec. 30. Pardon to Richard Gloere of Middelrasen of the king's suit for the death of Robert son of Robert de Faldyngworth, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry; as the king is informed that he killed him in self-defence. By p.s.

Eltham.

Jan. 2. Pardon, at the supplication of the king's esquire, John de Beverlee, to Richard Dome of Pencreech of the king's suit for the death of John son of Felicia de Sardou, in the county of Stafford, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Eltham.

Jan. 5. Presentation of Richard Balle, chaplain, to the vicarage of the church of Godrichecastell, in the diocese of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Monemouth being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Sheen.

1372.

Nov. 24. Licence for Richard de Bitterle and Margery, his wife, to enfeoff Thomas Wotton, parson of the church of Walton, and Adam de Hethey, clerk, of a moiety of the manor of Wolverton, held in chief; and for the said feoffees to re-enfeoff Richard and Margery of the same, to hold to them and the heirs of Margery. By p.s.

Westminster.

1373.

Jan. 10. Grant, in consideration of the services of William de Bohun, late earl of Northampton, deceased, as well as those of Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford, his son and heir, that in case the said earl of Hereford die of the sickness wherewith he is now afflicted while his heir or heirs are under age, his executors shall have, in aid of the payment of the various debts of his father and himself, all the castles, manors, lordships and lands in England and the march of Wales of which he is seised in his demesne as of fee from the time of his death for one whole year, and may take the issues and profits thereof without rendering account, saving to the king the wardship and marriage of the heir or heirs and all knights' fees and advowsons of churches pertaining to the said castles, etc.; provided that the executors keep the premises without waste and destruction. The present letters shall be void if the earl recover from his sickness.

Westminster. By K.

Jan. 12. Commission to Roger de Tyrynton of Lincoln, Nicholas de Cameryngham and Nicholas de Werk of Lincoln, to take carpenters and smiths in the counties of Lincoln and York for the making of a barge which the king has ordered to be made by the people of the city of Lincoln, put them to the works at the wages of the men of that town, there to stay as long as need be, and arrest all who are contrariant and rebellious and commit them to prison until they find security to serve in the said work. Appointment, also, of Richard 'of the Milne' of Grymesby, carpenter, to survey the making of the barge.

Westminster. Mandate in pursuance to the said Richard, with proviso that the king wills that the barge ordered to be made by the people of Boston be not delayed at all by colour of these presents.