

1373.

Membrane 24—cont.

- by advice and supervision of Godfrey de la Rokelle, steward of the manor of Reylegh, sufficient oaks for fuel for the store of the king's castle of Haddele, and to pay out of the issues of the manor of Estwode, by testimony of the said Godfrey, all costs as well for the felling as for the making of the fuel; also to cause to be made, by like advice, in the houses within the castle the fire necessary for their preservation. The king has commanded Godfrey to supervise the premises and ordain and dispose what should be done, and to control and attest his account in this. By p.s.
Mandate in pursuance to Godfrey.
- Feb. 27. Grant to William de Fyncheden, chief justice of the Common Westminster. Bench, of 2 tuns of wine to be taken yearly in the port of London by the hands of the king's butler, one at Easter and the other at Martinmas, for such time as he be in the office. By K.
- Mar. 5. Licence, at the request of the king's clerk, Master John de Westminster. Branketre, for the abbot and convent of Wynchecombe to crenellate their abbey and the houses and buildings of the same. By K.
- Mar. 5. Whereas lately, with the assent of the king's great council, for the Westminster. great need of the salvation of the land of Ireland, it was ordained that everyone having lordships or lands in the said land should come to Ireland in person or send there sufficient persons according to the rate of his lordship or lands, by Easter in the forty-third year, to stay there on the defence of that land, on pain of forfeiture of his lordships and lands, and whereas, since Hugh le Despenser, 'chivaler,' who at the time of the making of the ordinance and since has held lands there, neither came nor sent men in his name, his lands in Ireland have been taken into the king's hand as forfeit by virtue of the ordinance; the king, for good service done and to be done by Hugh, has pardoned him the forfeiture of the said lands and restored them to him. By K.
- Mar. 9. Presentation of Thomas de Belgrave, chaplain, to the church of Westminster. Pomknoll, in the diocese of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Robert Panys, who held in chief.
- Mar. 9. Grant to the king's clerk, John de Sleaford, of the prebend which King's Langley. William de Retford, deceased, held in the church of Salisbury, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of Salisbury.
Mandate in pursuance to R. bishop of Salisbury.
The like to the dean and chapter.
- Mar. 12. Presentation of Walter Pese, parson of the church of Bishop's Westminster. Cnoel, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the church of Cortenhale, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of Lenton being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William de Mullebourne.
- Mar. 18. Pardon to John Ullayk, because he has promised to go beyond seas Westminster. on the king's service in the company of Hugh de Calvyley to stay