1373.

Membrane 8—cont.

June 1. Grant for life or until other order to Hugh de Calvyley of 200 marks yearly at the Exchequer. By p.s.

Vacated because surrendered, and he has other letters of the keeping of the islands of Gernesey, Jereseye, Scer and Aurneyc, in recompence of the said annuity, as appears on the Patent Roll of the fiftieth year.

Membrane 7.

May 2. Whereas the king, by letters patent, granted for life to his yeoman, Westminster. Thomas Forcer, 10l. yearly of the issues of the county of Wilts, and afterwards another 10l. yearly of the said issues; he has now granted him the manor of Langeley Marreys with all the stock and other things delivered to him by indenture by Richard Pope, late farmer of the manor, to hold for his life as of the value of 50l. yearly, which sum was paid by the said Richard at farm, and it is the king's will that, in recompense of the said 20l. yearly and of the office of the king's lander (landarii) of Claryndon park, which office he had for life of the king's grant as of the value of 10l. yearly and surrendered by the king's order, 30l. of the said farm be deducted in the hands of the said Thomas and he render at farm 20l. yearly at the Exchequer for the manor with the stock and all other things delivered to him as above, provided that the manor be kept up by him in his lifetime and at his death be given back with the stock in as good a state or better than he received it in, notwithstanding that he has not surrendered the king's letters patent as he ought to have done, because they have been lost, as he has affirmed on oath. It is the king's will, however, that if they be at any time hereafter shown in the Chancery for any cause they shall be received there and damaged without execution. By p.s.

June 2. Presentation of Roger Colyn, vicar of the church of Newecherche, Westminster, in the diocese of Canterbury, to the church of Blakmanston, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of his wardship of the land and heir of Henry de Haute, who held in chief; on an exchange of benefices with William atte Cherche.

April 1. Appointment, during pleasure, of William de Basynges, master of Westminster. the hospital of St. Mary, Strode, to be chief master and clerk of the works which the king has ordained to be done at his castles of Quenesburgh, Rouchester and Ledes, and the manor of Gravesende, to make all payments as well for wages of hewers of stone, carpenters and other workmen, as for stone, timber and other necessaries for the works, and for carriage for these, by view and testimony of John Barler, clerk, controller and surveyor of the said works, to bring back workmen engaged for the works who have withdrawn without licence, to commit those whom they find contrariant or rebellious to prison until they find security to serve on the works, to make inquisition whether stone, timber or other necessaries bought for the works have been eloinved, and have any which may have been carried away brought back, and to sell for the king's use all branches and other residues of the trees bought for the works; taking in the office 12d. a day for his wages.