Feb. 15. Commission to Nicholas de Styuecle, John Wauton, Richard de
Westminster. Imworth, Henry Herward, John Hert, David Hull, Thomas Holbeche, David Berdevyll, John Gouncy and Henry Haggele, reciting that, whereas the king by judgement of the court of Common Bench lately recovered against John, bishop of Ely, and Nicholas Russel, clerk, his presentation to the church of Bluntesham, in his gift by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of Ely; and afterwards, learning that Nicholas purposed by process sued without the realm to annul the judgement, prohibited him from going to foreign parts to attempt anything to the prejudice of the king or in derogation of the judgement, and he, contrary to the prohibition, went to the said parts and there prosecuted many processes to the prejudice
