

1373.

Membrane 16d—cont.

justice, held on that day, the yearly value of the lands, and the value of the goods, and who should answer to the king for the same; to find also who have taken the fruits, rents and profits of the vicarage of the church of Braunton, whereof he was afterwards vicar, and the value of the vicarage.

MEMBRANE 15d.

May 16. Commission to Geoffrey Colepepir, sheriff of Kent, William Hare-
Westminster. well and Roger Asshournham, on information that the highway leading from the town of Penshurst in that county to Barden is deep and muddy, worn down by the frequent passing of carts and horses, to find who are bound and ought to repair the same and compel them to do so.

Commission to William de Acton, on information that many merchants and others passing with ships and boats by the water of Tyne to Newcastle-upon-Tyne throw ballast (lastagium) and other filth out of their ships and boats whereby the water is obstructed and the passage of ships and boats to the town prevented, and that goods and wares liable to custom are taken to foreign parts by the said water without payment of the customs and subsidies due to the king, to ordain by the best ways and means he can that such ballast and filth be not thrown into the water, to enquire by the oath of good men of the county of Northumberland touching goods and wares exported without payment of the custom due and what damage the king has sustained by this, and to certify the king from time to time of all that he does in this behalf.

MEMBRANE 11d.

May 17. Commission of oyer and terminer to Roger de Kirketon, Thomas de Westminster. Holbech, 'chivaler,' John de Wyke, John Hode and John Hawe, on complaint by Thomas de Dryby that Roger Cokar of Quappelade, William, his brother, Henry Thurlowe of Quappelade, William Wyot of Quappelade, Nicholas de Steynton of Spaldyng, William Broune of Multon and others, at Quappelade, co. Lincoln, assaulted him, carried away his goods and assaulted his men and servants.

For 20s. paid in the hanaper.

May 15. Commission to William de Aldburgh, Henry de Barton, clerk,
Westminster. Roger de Fulthorp, Ellis de Thoresby, John de Mitford and John de Halydene, to make a perambulation between the land of Henry de Percy in Corbrigg, co. Northumberland, and the lands of the prior and convent of Hextildesham in Aynewyk within the liberty of Hextildesham; as the king is given to understand that there have often been quarrels and dissensions between them over the metes and bounds of these lands.

MEMBRANE 9d.

June 3. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Latymere, John Westminster. de Ippe, Robert Bealknapp and Thomas de Frowyk, touching all trespasses, extortions, oppressions, damages, grievances and excesses done against the king or his tenants within the lordship of Haveryng atte Boure, co. Essex.