1373.

Membrane 34—cont.

July 10. Grant for life or until other order, to John Leche, for good service at King's Langley, to be rendered by him, of 10l. yearly at the Exchequer. By p.s.

July 12. Commission to Collard Daubrichecourt, constable of Notyngham castle, and the king’s serjeant-at-arms, John Legg, to receive two sons of Charles de Bloys, late the king’s prisoner in the castle of Devye, from Roger de Bello Campo, constable of that castle, by indenture, bring them to Notyngham castle and deliver them to Robert de Morton, lieutenant of the said Collard, to keep at his peril in the castle. By K.

Vacated because otherwise below.

July 13. Nicholas Gernoun, knight, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert Holywod, ‘chivaler,’ and Robert Babe as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. Walter Power received the attorneys.

MEMBRANE 33.

July 4. Licence, for 80l. paid to the king by the abbot and convent of Westminster, Tychefeld, for the alienation in mortmain to them by William Wolf, clerk, and Thomas Warner of the manor of Porteseye, not held in chief, as has been found by inquisition taken by John Froille, escheator in the county of Southampton, to find a lamp burning daily in the abbey church before the high altar at high mass.

June 15. Inspeiximus of letters patent (in French) of Humphrey de Bohun, late earl of Hereford, Essex and Northampton, and constable of England, who last died, dated at Plessiz, Tuesday after the Epiphany, 46 Edward III, granting for life to his bachelor, John Clanevough, ‘chivaler,’ a rent of 40l. yearly out of the manor of Uphavene; and grant that the said John shall take the same, notwithstanding that the manor is now in the king’s hand by the death of the earl and by reason of the nonage of his daughters and heirs, for such time as the manor shall remain in the king’s hand. By p.s.

July 8. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Neubo, in full satisfaction of 20l. yearly of land and rent in the counties of Lincoln, Nottingham and Leicester, not held in chief, which they have the king’s licence to acquire, of the following:—

- by Roger de Hoghton, vicar of the church of Langbenyngton, John de Kneveton, chaplain, John Purley and John de Denton, clerk, two messuages, three carucates of land and 40 acres of meadow in Casthorp, co. Lincoln;
- by Thomas Hunt, clerk, John de Herlaston of Grantham and Gilbert Messager of Herlaston, a wind-mill, 60 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow and 5 marks of rent in Denton, co. Lincoln, and
- by John de Warsop, canon of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, 120 acres of wood in Roppesley, co. Lincoln.

The premises, beyond the said rent, are of the value of 5 marks yearly, as has been found by inquisition taken by Ralph de Thresk, escheator in the said county.