the king shall take one moiety of the profits of such lands and Henry the other; and Henry shall find fitting sustenance for the heirs, shall keep the two parts without waste, do the real services due therefrom, and support all other charges due from the two parts.

By bill of the treasurer.

Membrane 30.

July 10. Grant, for life or until other order, to Edward de Twyford, Westminster, ‘chivaler,’ for good service to be done, of 100 marks yearly, to wit, 69 marks of the farm of the town of Derby by the hands of the bailiffs of the town, and the remaining 31 marks of the farm of the town of Notyngham by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs of the town.

By bill of the treasurer.

July 12. Commission to the king’s squire, William de Weston, and the king’s serjeant-at-arms, John Legg, to receive by indenture from Roger de Bello Campo, constable of the castle of Devyse, the two sons of Charles de Bloys, late the king’s prisoner, hostages at present detained in that castle, and have them brought to the castle of Notyngham and there delivered, by indenture, to Robert de Morton, lieutenant of Collard Daubrichecourt, constable of the latter castle. [Federa.]

By p.s.

July 11. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Huntyngfeld Westminster to the prioress and convent of the Sisters of the order of the Preachers, Dertford, of the advowson of the church of Bokesworth, held in chief; and for the appropriation of the church by the prioress and convent.

By p.s.

July 18. Whereas the pope, at the special request of the king, made a provision to the king’s clerk, Thomas de Bernolby, of the prebend of Bishop Aukeland which Thomas de Bridkirk lately held in the collegiate church of Aukeland of the patronage of the bishop of Durham, and the king, not remembering this provision, granted the prebend to Hugh de Westwik, and by colour of this collation the said Thomas, although he obtained canonical possession of his prebend before the collation took effect and the king ratified his estate therein, is now disturbed in his possession of the prebend: the king by advice of the council has granted licence for him to prosecute, himself or by proctors, in any court, ecclesiastical or secular, in defence of his right in the prebend or for the recovery of the prebend if he have been despoiled of it.

By p.s.

July 18. Release to Eufemia late the wife of Walter de Heselarton, knight, of all actions and demands which the king or his heirs has or could have against her touching all jewels and goods of the king or of his late consort Philippa delivered to the said Walter in his lifetime by Alice Perers, late one of the damsels of the chamber of the said queen; because Alice Perers has received the same from her by order of the king to his use.

By p.s.

July 26. Henry Husee, staying in England, has letters nominating John Westminster Belewe and Thomas Chaumbre as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. Robert de Muskham, clerk, received the attorneys.