1373.

Sept. 23. Grant for life to the king's clerk, William Hannay, of the wardenship of the hospital of Maldon. Mandate to the sheriff of Essex to induct him.

Sept. 13. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the master, brethren and sisters of the hospital of St. Leonard, York, in satisfaction of 1 mark of 20l. yearly of land and rent not held of the king except in burgage which they have the king's licence to acquire, of the following:

by Thomas de Kirkeby and John de Braweby, chaplains, a messuage in Walmegate in the suburb of York;

by the said John and Walter de Naffreton, parson of the church of St. Margaret, York, William Gryme, chaplain, and Thomas de Kirkeby, vicar in the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, a messuage in York, and by Robert de Gare and John de Neuland, 2s. of rent out of lands late of John de Braweby, chaplain, Ralph de Tiddeswell, chaplain, and Roger de Allerthorp, 'barker,' in the street called 'Blaykstrete' in the said city.

The said two messuages are held of the king in burgage by the service of rendering to him yearly 3d. as housgabel by the hands of the bailiffs of the city, and the land out of which the rent comes is held in like manner by the service of rendering 1d. yearly as housgabel, and the messuages are worth, beyond a rent resolute, 7s. yearly, as has been found by inquisition taken by William de Ergum, escheator in the county of York.

Sept. 2. Gift to the king's kinswoman, Joan late the wife of Humphrey de Bohun, late earl of Hereford, who died last, of all the issues and profits pertaining to the king of the earl's lands assigned to her in dower, from the time of the earl's death to the days on which the lands were so assigned to her.

Sept. 17. Ratification of the estate of John de Empyngham, monk, as master of the hospital of St. John the Baptist and St. Thomas the Martyr on Staunford bridge which he holds of the collation of the abbot of Peterborough.

Aug. 26. Grant to the king's son Edmund, earl of Cambridge, of the wardship of the lands late of Roger de Widerynghem, who held in chief, with the marriage of the heir, and so from heir to heir; he finding competent sustenance for the heir and doing and supporting the real services and charges incumbent on the lands.

Sept. 10. Protection and safe conduct, until Whitsuntide next, for John Spaynayd, master of a ship called la Cristofre of Lesclus in Flanders, who purposes to bring merchandise to England and take merchandise from England to parts in friendship with the king; and for the ship and the mariners thereof.

The like for Peter van Norway, master of a ship called la Maryknyght of Lesclus.

Oct. 28. The like for the said John and Peter, severally, until Midsummer next.
