land and 5 acres of meadow in Cantebrigge and Grancestre, by the said William and Robert of eight messuages in the same towns, and by the said king, William, Thomas and Robert of the reversions of a messuage in Cantebrigge held for life by Thomas Torell, and another messuage there, sometime of John Weston, held for life by Thomas Lythum, Joan, his wife, Ellen, her daughter, and John Skynnere and Joan, his wife.

Nov. 16. Inspeximus and confirmation of an indenture (in French) made between the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Giles without the bar of the Old Temple, London, and John Plompton, clerk, witnessing that the master and brethren, with the assent of the master of Burton, had granted to the said John 14d. a week out of the hospital to be taken yearly for three years from the date of the indenture, and after the said three years a corrody for life, to wit, bread, ale, flesh, fish and other viands at the table of the brethren, if he be in health, and if he be ill there shall be ministered to him in his chamber such viands as the master and his confrères have, with a chamber with a chimney and a wardrobe; and if, in time to come, the master or his confrères be not willing that he take his sustenance as above, then he shall take 12d. a week; for the security of which the master and brethren, with the assent of the master of Burton, bind themselves by this indenture in 40l. for the performance of this contract. In witness whereof the seal of the master and brethren, the signet of the master of Burton and the seal of the said John are appended. Written in the hospital, 9 May, 46 Edward III. For ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Nov. 20. Whereas it has been found by inquisition taken by William de Ergum, escheator in the county of York, that Gilbert de Gaunt, by deed, lately granted without licence to his brother Adam de Gaunt and Agnes, the latter's wife, in tail, with reversion to him and his heirs, two messuages, four and a half tofts, and fifteen and a half bovates of land in Hundemanby, held in chief by knight service, and that Adam and Agnes, and after their death Roger de Kerdeston, kinsman and heir of the said Gilbert, and William son and heir of the said Roger, successively entered into the premises, likewise without licence, and that the same have been taken into the king's hand on account of these trespasses; the king, for 40s. paid by William son and heir of the last named William, has pardoned the trespasses and granted that he shall have the messuages, tofts and lands again.

Oct. 28. Grant, during pleasure, to the king's serjeant-at-arms, Hugh Ryngebourne, now appointed at the king's will surveyor of the king's ships, of 12d. a day at the Exchequer for his wages. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 17.

Oct. 28. Presentation of Walter Berford, vicar of the church of Burbache, in the diocese of Salisbury, to the vicarage of the church of Birlyng, in the diocese of Rochester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Bermundesey being in his hands on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Richard Reydon.