Dec. 20. Inspeximus and confirmation during good behaviour of letters patent under the seal of Ireland, witnessed by William de Wyndesore, king's lieutenant in Ireland, and dated at Cashel, 24 June, 45 Edward III, granting for life to John More, for good service done in the Exchequer of Ireland, the offices of the marshalsea and ushership of the said Exchequer.

By fine of ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Dec. 18. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, granted to John Hakeney by letters patent dated 5 May last in the belief that he was going beyond seas on the king’s service in the company of Thomas Driffeld; such letters to be of no force if he did not go or returned within the term; because he has now returned to England and makes continual stay in the city of London, as John Fifhide and John Aubrey, sheriffs of London, have certified.

Jan. 12. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Quyneld and Westminster. Walter Lepere of two messuages and 2 acres of land in Egeswere and Ildestre, and by John Chishull, chaplain, William Stoteville, vicar of the church of St. Sepulchre without Neugate, London, and by John Harpesfeld of a toft, 116 acres of land, 5 acres of meadow and 6 acres of wood in Acton, not held in chief, which are of the value of 32s. yearly, as has been found by inquisition taken by Nicholas Heryng, escheator in the county of Middlesex, to the prior and convent of St. Bartholomew’s, Smethefeld, to hold as of the value of 40s. yearly in part satisfaction of 20l. yearly of land and rent which they have the king’s licence to acquire.

Jan. 15. Grant, for life or until other order, to Richard Fode, whom the king has appointed to be serjeant harbinger of his cart- and sumpter-horses, of 10 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

Vacated because surrendered, on the ground that the king, on 29 March, in his fifty-first year, granted to him 10l. yearly for life, as appears on the Patent Roll of that year.

Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, lately granted for John de Cretyngs of London, in the belief that he was going beyond seas on the king’s service to stay in the munition of Calais in the company of John de Burle; because he has not gone and is not preparing to go, but stays in London, as has been found by certificate of the sheriffs.

Jan. 16. Grant to Nicholas de Carreu and his kinsman, Thomas son and heir of Leonard de Carreu, a minor, of the manor of Balymacythan, co. Meath, which pertained to the said Leonard by hereditary right after the death of his father, John de Carreu, and has come into the king’s hand because Leonard did not come or send men to Ireland to stay on the defence of the manor, pursuant to the ordinance made by the king and council at Guldeford; to hold to them and the heirs of Thomas of the same lords and by the same services as before it came into the king’s hand.

By K.

Jan. 18. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Walter Wodelond of Guldeford, going to Ireland on the king’s service in the company
