Membrane 33—cont.

To take twenty hewers of stone in the county of Southampton for the works of the walls of the said town, put them to the works at the wages of the men of the town, there to stay as long as shall be necessary, and arrest all who are contrariant and commit them to prison until they find security to serve on the works.

Membrane 32.

June 15. Appointment, pursuant to the statute in the late parliament at Westminster, of Henry de Cranford as buyer to the household, until Christmas. French.

1374.

April 3. Westminster.
April 12. Westminster.
May 18. Westminster.
Oct. 3. Westminster.

The like of the following:

- Thomas Burbach, to lodge the king's horses; until Michaelmas.
- William Depyng, to lodge the destriers, coursers and other horses for the king's sojourn; as above.
- Peter de Whitele, for the poultry; as above.
- John Parker, to buy for the king's falcons in the mews by Westminster; as above.
- Robert Makeney, for the poultry; as above.
- Nicholas Blount, as above.
- Nicholas Fisshere, as above.
- Thomas Knyghtle, for the office of the scullery; until Christmas.
- William Deuyas, for the expenses of the household; as above.
- John de Conyngesby, as above.
- Walter Boklond, as above.
- Roger atte Churche, as above.
- John de Seynesbury, as above.
- Richard Merlowe, to buy wheat for the household; until Easter.
- Henry de Cranford, to buy for the king's horses; until Midsummer.
- Richard Fode, to buy for the king's cart-horses and sumpter-horses; as above.
- William de Mordon, to lodge the king's horses; as above.
- John Fauconer, to buy for the king's horses; as above.
- John Buterlee, as above; until Easter.
- Robert Weryngton, as above; until Midsummer.
- John Parkere, to buy for the falcons in the king's mews by Westminster; until Michaelmas.
- Robert Makeneye, for the poultry; until Whitsuntide.
- Peter de Whitele, as above.
- Nicholas Blount, as above.
- Nicholas Fisshere, as above.

1375.

Jan. 10. Westminster.

John de Seynesbury, for the expenses of the household; until Midsummer.
John de Conyngesby, as above.
William Deuyas, as above.