1375.

Membrane 32—cont.

Jan. 20. Roger atte Churche, as above.
Westminster. John Otebred, for the office of the bakehouse; as above.
Thomas de Stoke, to buy wheat for the expenses of the household.
Richard Merlowe, as above.

1374.

Feb. 4. Grant to William Tauk, chief baron of the Exchequer, that he may the more fittingly maintain his estate and the expenses of his office, of 40L yearly at the Exchequer beyond the fee which he takes of the king, so long as he shall remain in the said office. By K.
Westminster. Thomas de Stoke, to buy wheat for the expenses of the household.
Richard Merlowe, as above.

Feb. 16. Whereas the king has learned on behalf of Thomas Reyner and Joan, his wife, daughter of John Harold, clerk, that 10 marks of rent in Lower Moyagherie within the county and liberty of Meath, together with the advowson of the church of St. Mary of that town, were taken into the king's hand as forfeit in accordance with the late ordinance for the saving and defence of Ireland as if John had been tenant thereof, whereas he had long before granted them to the said Joan; he has pardoned the said forfeiture and restored to Thomas and Joan the said rent and advowson. By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 31.

Jan. 28. Whereas the king lately, on 28 July last, granted to John Davy, chaplain, the prebend of New Chapel in Malaghyman in the cathedral church of Cashel, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Cashel, and ordered the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric to admit him and assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter, and he has now learned that the bishop of Lismore, then guardian of the spirituality, not caring to admit the said John or institute him therein, although requested in form of law to do so, admitted one James Boys thereto and had him instituted by pretext of a collation made by Robert de Assheton, late justiciary of Ireland, or his lieutenant, under the seal of Ireland; considering that the justiciaries of Ireland have no right to grant prebends in the king's gift without special power to do so, and that the said Robert had no such power, he has revoked all letters of collation to the said prebend made by Robert or his lieutenant, of whatsoever date, and any consequence thereof.
Westminster. Mandate in pursuance to Philip, archbishop of Cashel.
The like to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Cashel.

Feb. 6. Mandate to William de Wyndesore, governor and guardian of Ireland, or his lieutenant, and the chancellor of Ireland, to cause to be sealed under the seal of Ireland as many writs as the said John shall require in prosecuting the king's right.

Feb. 3. Licence for Joan, late the wife of William de Sancto Quintmo, to crenellate a belfry which she purposes to make in the churchyard of the chapel of Harpham.
Westminster. For ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Feb. 6. Thomas de Asteleye of Morton, staying in England, has letters nominating Thomas Maureward and William de Baryngton as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.
Westminster. Th. de Newenham received the attorneys.