Membrane 31—cont.

Feb. 6. Commission to John de Foxley, Henry Sturny, Walter de Westminster. Haywoode and Peter atte Wode to survey the state of the New Forest and the defects there, and certify the king of the same; and to arrest and commit to prison until further order all delinquents whom they shall find in the said forest with the mainour.

Vacated because on the dorse of this year.

Feb. 8. Licence, for 2 marks paid to the king by John Serjeaunt of Stone, Westminster. for the alienation in mortmain by him of 5 messuages, 16 acres of land and an acre of meadow in Hamme and Alkynton to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of Stone for his safe estate and for his soul after his death, and for the souls of his father, mother, ancestors and heirs.

Feb. 8. Grant in tail to the king’s son Edmund, earl of Cambridge, of the manors of Belestre and Cryndon within the liberty of Tyndale, a mill, 250 acres of land and 6 acres of meadow in Belyngham, a tenement called ‘Sekerwam’ containing 60 acres of land and 5 acres of meadow, a tenement called ‘Bernerdestede,’ containing 22 acres of land and 2 acres of meadow, two tenements in Thrilwall containing 42 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow, a tenement called ‘Holdenerlande’ containing 20 acres of land and 2 acres of meadow, a sheiling of land called ‘Someryerde’ containing 100 acres of land and pasture, and a moiety of a hope called ‘Chirden,’ containing 3,000 acres of pasture within the said liberty, all which are in the king’s hand as forfeit of war, together with knights’ fees, advowsons, parks, chaces, woods, warrens, fisheries, escheats, forfeitures, fairs, markets, royalties, lordships, liberties and other things pertaining thereto; also the manor of la Leye, late of the abbot of Jeddeworth, together with knights’ fees &c. as above, for as long as the said manor shall remain in the king’s hands.

By K.

Feb. 12. Confirmation in fee to John Rauf, clerk, of a grant to him by Master John Gateneys of his estate in the tenements in Smethefeld in the parish of St. Sepulchre in the suburb of London which William de Langeford held in his demesne as of fee in burgage on the day of his death, situated between Cokeslane and a tenement called ‘Littel Watte’s tenement,’ which he holds for life of the king’s grant.

By p.s.

Feb. 12. Whereas on 1 April in the king’s thirty-ninth year the king granted to his kinswoman Elizabeth, countess of Athelles, 100l. yearly at the Exchequer for life or until other order, and afterwards, with the assent of the king’s esquire, John Malewayn, who after the said grant took the said Elizabeth to wife, and of the will of the same Elizabeth, the king granted the said 100l. yearly to Alice Perreres; now with the assent of Alice, who has surrendered the said grant, the king has granted the annuity to John de Surray, for life, to be taken of the farm of the city of London.

By p.s.

Feb. 2. Grant for life to Robert Broun of the office of constable of the castle of Carlagh in Ireland, taking such fees and wages as Nicholas