1374.

Membrane 28—cont.

Ireland, has letters nominating Richard Marershall, 'habirdassher' and citizen of London, and Roger de Stanlay as his attorneys in England for one year.

William de Mirfield, clerk, received the attorneys.

Feb. 26. Robert de Eure, going as above, has letters nominating John del Westminster. Aumery and Alexander de Aune as his attorneys as above.

Richard de Tyssyng[ton], clerk, received the attorneys.

Feb. 25. William Hamstyrley, staying in England, has letters nominating Robert de Eure and John More as his attorneys in Ireland for one year.

Richard de Tyssyngton, clerk, received the attorneys.

March 1. Exemption for life of Nicholas Wicchebury of Saresbirs from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, escheator, coroner, collector of tenths, fifteenths or any other subsidy, arrayer or leader of men-at-arms, armed men, hobelers or archers, or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will.

By p.s.

March 5. Commission to William Waryn to supervise and control all sales of sweet wines made by John Beverle of Boston, to whom the king, on 3 March last, with the advise of the council granted licence to sell for three years at a reasonable price, by retail or in parcels, sweet wines bought or to be bought in the towns of Boston, Lincoln, Staunford and Grantham, co. Lincoln, so that he pay at the Exchequer for such licence one mark for each vessel of wine so sold.

Feb. 20. Whereas lately the king, for 10s. paid to him by his clerk, John de Tamworth, granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by him of a messuage and 16 cottages in the suburb of London, held of the king in burgage, which are extended at 10s. yearly as is found by an inquisition taken by John Lovekyn, late escheator in the city of London, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. Sepulchre without Neugate according to the ordinance of the said John, the vicar of the church and certain of the parishioners; and now John has petitioned the king that, as the said letters have not yet taken effect, he will be pleased to grant him licence to grant the said messuage and cottages to the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Bartholomew, Smethefeld, London, to find a secular chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the said church at the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Anne, her mother, in honour of the Holy Trinity, the Blessed Virgin, the Blessed Joachim and Anne and all the Saints of God, and for the safe estate of the king, his children, Edward, prince of Wales, Hugh, earl of Stafford, the said John and Alice, his wife, and their children, and for their souls, and for the souls of Isabel, the king's mother, Philippa, his late consort, Ralph, late earl of Stafford, Ralph Basset, Robert de Kildesby, Emery Coket, John's uncle, and William de Harleston, his kinsman, his father and mother, Alice sometime his wife, and all the faithful departed, and especially those of whom John has received anything in aid of his sustenance: the king, on surrender of the said letters, has granted his petition.