the land and heir of John de Huntercoumb, who held in chief, being in his hand. By p.s.

April 11. Presentation of John Wauburgh to the church of Cortenhale by Norhampton, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Lenton being in his hand on account of the war with France.

MEMBRANE 24.

Feb. 16. Whereas William son of Gilbert de Lancastre, who held in chief of Henry III the advowson of the church of Barton, co. Westmoreland, granted the same to Roger, his brother, in fee, and afterwards Edward II, by letters patent dated 4 August in his twelfth year, granted licence for John de Lancastre, then in possession of the advowson, to alienate it in mortmain to the prior and convent of Wartre, and for them to appropriate the church, by pretext whereof they did so and have held the church appropriated for sixty years and more; and now the prior and convent, fearing that they may be impeached upon their possession because in the said licence no mention is made of the said advowson being first of all held of the king’s said progenitor, have prayed the king to provide for their security in the matter: the king, considering their long possession, and that they may serve God with the greater devotion, has pardoned them all trespasses which might be said to have been done in the said alienations and appropriation, and confirms their estate in the church. By p.s.

Feb. 2. Licence, for 40l. paid to the king by John son of John Lenveysy, Westminster, for him to enfeoff William Forde, clerk, John Knyght, clerk, and Thomas Segyntone, clerk, of the manor of Coumbe Byset, co. Wilts, and the manor of Hogenorton, co. Oxford, held in chief, except 10 acres of land in the said manor of Coumbe Byset, and also of the reversion of the manor of Cudlynton, co. Oxford, likewise held in chief, which Roger Elmrugge and Elizabeth, his wife, hold for the life of Elizabeth; and for the said feoffees to grant the same, having received the attornments of Roger and Elizabeth in respect of the manor of Cudlynton, to the said John son of John and Elizabeth his wife, and the heirs of his body, with remainder over, in the case of the manor of Coumbe Byset to his right heirs, and in the case of the other manors to William de Molyns, ‘chivaler,’ and his heirs.

Feb. 20. Whereas lately the king, for 20l. paid to him by John de Burgh, chaplain, William Liber, John de Pontfret, Randolf Palmer and Thomas Yelvertolt, granted licence for the alienation in mortmain by them of the reversions of two messuages in Coventre expectant on the demises of John de Toft and Alice, late the wife of William de Shepeye, respectively, and by Nicholas de Baddesle, chaplain, of the reversion of a messuage in the same town expectant on the demise of Margery, late the wife of Henry Diloc, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily at the altar of St. Mary in the church of St. Michael, Coventre, for the souls of Henry Dilcock and Margery, his wife, Robert de Watton and Maud, his wife, and William de Shepeye and Alice, his wife; and now the said John de Burgh, William, John de Pontfret, Randolf and Thomas have prayed the
