April 16. Hugh, [cardinal deacon] of St. Mary in Porticu, staying beyond Westminster, has letters nominating Thomas Dawney and John Kevermond as his attorneys in England for two years. S. bishop of London, received the attorneys by writ.

He has other letters nominating William de Hilton and Richard de Derleston, as above. The same bishop received the attorneys.

April 1. Pardon to Thomas Proude, late parson of the church of Willesford, of the king's suit for having, on Wednesday in Easter week in the king's forty-sixth year, taken and carried away 18 trees, each worth 12d., within the close of the prior of Willesford, at Willesford, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry.

By p.s.

March 18. Grant to William Horewode, mayor of Cambridge, and John Gyboun, the elder, of pavage for two years in aid of paving the town of Cambridge. It is not the king's intention that this grant shall prejudice the privileges granted by the king's progenitors to clerks of the university.

April 16. Edmund de Mortuo Mari, earl of March and Ulster, staying in Westminster, England, has letters nominating Stephen, bishop of Meath, and Alexander, bishop of Ossory, as his attorneys in Ireland for one year. The chancellor received the attorneys by letter of the earl.

He has other letters nominating Robert de Holywode, knight, and Stephen Bray, as above. The chancellor received the attorneys.

He has other letters nominating John de Bridwode, clerk, and Hugh de Boraston, as above.

The chancellor received the attorneys.

The above attorneys are admitted as guardians of the king's daughter, Philippa, wife of the earl, staying in England, for one year. John Lovell, 'chivaler,' received the guardians by writ.

March 18. Whereas the following tenements and rents in London were bequeathed in mortmain to the prior and convent of the church of St. Bartholomew, Smethfeld, London, to wit, by Edmund de Grymesby, clerk, a tenement in the parish of St. Leonard in St. Vedast's street, sometime of Master John de Shelwyk, a tenement in the parish of St. Botolph without Aldreagate, London, sometime of Master John Kirmont, a tenement in Fletestrete in the suburb of London, by the name of all his houses and tenements in Fletestrete, and 2 shops in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Neugate in the lane called 'Wendegeyneslane' sometime of John atte Feld and Avice, his wife, by Henry Frere of Iselden a messuage in the parish of All Hallows, Bredstrete, by the name of all his houses in that parish, by Thomas Bakon of Neuton, knight, all the