

1374.

Membrane 22—cont.

Eudo Couper, who had acquired them from William de Ratheby, who held them in chief, and the said parties successively entered therein without the king's licence, on account of which the premises were taken into the king's hand as is found by an inquisition made by Ralph de Thresk, escheator in the county of Lincoln; the king, for 10s. paid by Simon and Agnes, has pardoned the trespasses and restored them the lands in tail, with remainder to the right heirs of Simon.

April 3. Grant, for 31s. paid to the king by Richard de Oxenford of London, to him of a messuage in the parish of St. John upon Walbrok, London, sometime of Walter Oseneye of London, who held it in chief, which pertains to the king as escheat because Walter died without heir of himself. By p.s.
King's Langley manor.

May 1. Presentation of Henry de Wakefeld to the church of Tredynton, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Worcester. By p.s.
Sheen.

April 28. Grant to William Holikyns, William Lyndrapere, John Silby, Robert Waldene and William del Chaumbre of pontage for three years in aid of the great bridge over the water of Avene within the town of Warrewyk, which is broken down.
Westminster.

April 4. Commission to John Barler, clerk, to survey the works at the castles of Quenesburgh, Rouechestre and Ledes and the manor of Gravesende, and to control all payments by William de Basynges, master of the hospital of St. Mary Strode, chief master and clerk of the said works, for the enclosure of the parks of Ledes and Langelepark, the making of houses there, the buying of hay for the king's deer, the wages of hewers of stone, carpenters and other workmen hired or to be hired for the said works, the buying of stone, timber and other necessaries for the works, carriage for the same, and all other payments touching the said works, and to testify upon his account and do all other things pertaining to the office of surveyor and controller.
Westminster.

April 3. Grant to the king's servant, Stephen de Haddeleye, of the keeping of the lands in the county of Essex late of Richard Fifhide, who held in chief, until the full age of Humphrey, his son and heir, together with the marriage of the latter.
Westminster.

MEMBRANE 21.

April 16. Pardon, at the request of the king's clerk, William de Sleaford, to Robert Tournour, 'carpenter,' of the king's suit for the death of John Dogget, killed before 30 April last, on which day the king granted him letters of pardon for that death which for certain causes have not taken effect; and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.
Westminster.

April 14. Revocation, on certain evidences shewn before the king in Chancery, of the presentation, dated 24 October last, of Thomas de Stillyngton to the vicarage of the church of Sutton in Galtres, in the diocese of York, appropriated to the prior and convent of Marton in Galtres, which the king then believed to be void and in his gift.
Westminster.