1374.
May 7. Licence, for 100s. paid to the king by Thomas de la Mare, for him to grant the manor of Aldermanston, co. Berks, and all his lands, rents and services there, held in chief, to Nicholas de Carreu, John de Carreu, clerk, Nicholas son of Nicholas de Carreu and Thomas de Houton for life, rendering for the first ten years a rose only every year, and afterwards 200l. yearly at Midsummer; with proviso for re-entry in case of the said rent of 200l. being in arrear.

April 3. Grant, for life or until other order, with the assent of John de Kirkeby, to Walter Partriche, the king’s servant, of the 60s. yearly at the Exchequer which the king, by letters patent surrendered, lately granted the said John for good service in the office of the king’s kitchen.

May 10. Grant to William de Latymer, the king’s chamberlain, and Richard Stury, one of the knights of the king’s chamber, of the keeping of the lands late of Fulk Fitz Waryn, knight, who held in chief, until the full age of the heir, together with the marriage of such heir and the issues of the land from the time of Fulk’s death; provided that they find a fitting sustenance for the heir according to the value of the lands and support all real services and other charges incumbent on the lands.

May 12. On the supplication of the parson of the church of St. Peter, Walyndford, and certain of the parishioners of the churches of St. Mary the Less and St. Michael of the same town, which are of the patronage of the dean of the free chapel within the castle of Walyndford, praying that, whereas the bishop of Salisbury, the diocesan, in compassion for the poverty of the church of St. Peter, the profits of which do not suffice to maintain a parson, and considering that the churches of St. Mary and St. Michael are as it were desolate and destroyed for lack of rule because no one has cared to undertake the cure thereof for a great time owing to their excessive poverty, purports to unite the two last-mentioned churches to the first, he will give his royal licence for this; the king has granted such licence.

May 12. Appointment, during pleasure, of the king’s clerk, Philip de Melreth, as auditor of the accounts to be rendered of all receipts and issues of all rents, farms and other profits and emoluments in the lordships of Breknok, Cantrecellif, Hay, Huntynge and Caldecote in Wales, in the king’s hand by reason of the minority of the heirs of Humphrey de Bohun, late earl of Hereford, who held in chief; also as surveyor of all the manors of the said lordships; taking in those offices 20 marks yearly of the issues of the said manors for as long as he shall stay therein.

May 13. Licence, for 20 marks paid to the king by John Colpeper, for the alienation in mortmain by him of 2 messuages, 10 acres of land, 33 acres of meadow and 68s. of rent in Tonbrigg, Pepynbury, Brenchesle, Tudele, Hadlo, Burgham, Edlyng, Estpekham and Capel to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the chapel of St. Mary in the churchyard of the church of Pepynbury for the safe estate of the king and the said John, and for their souls after
