1374.

Membrane 17—cont.

May 24. Whereas John, abbot of Citeaux, staying beyond seas, and the convent of that place, have appointed Peter de Castro Novo and John de Sancto Johanne, their fellow-monks, as their proctors-general in all causes and matters concerning them, their house and their churches of Scardeburgh and Stanlay, in the diocese of York, with power to appoint others in their place; the king, for 30s. paid by the said abbot and convent, has granted that the said Peter and John may be their attorneys with power as above, for five years.

Membrane 16.

May 8. Confirmation, for 8 marks and 9s. paid to the king by Reynold de Grey, knight, lord of Deffrencloyt, of the grant and warranty to him and Eleanor, his wife, William de Gyldesburgh, parson of the church of Sewyneston and John de Whitewell by William de Stanes, citizen and spicer of London, and Joan, his wife, of all their tenements, with houses, curtilages, gardens and other appurtenances, which they had in the city of London, to wit, in the street called 'Manionelane' in the parish of St. Dunstan by the Tower, which lie in breadth between a tenement sometime of Ralph de Sandwico, knight, towards the south, and tenements late of Richard le Keu, 'chaloner,' the prior and convent of the hospital of St. Mary the Virgin, and Simon de Mereworth, and a tenement late of John de Kent towards the north, and extend in length from the high street in 'Manionelane,' on the west to the churchyard of the church of All Hallows, Stanyngechirche, towards the east. By C. and by p.s.

May 12. Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and good men of Newcastle-upon-Tyne of pontage for five years.

May 14. Whereas Robert Leget, clerk, was put outside the king's protection for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer the king touching certain contempts and misdeeds prejudicial to the king and his crown perpetrated by him; the king has restored him to his peace and protection, as he has now surrendered to the Flete prison as William de Fyncheden, chief justice, has certified.

May 16. Presentation of John Trenewyth, chaplain, to the chantry of St. Michael of Menecudel in the church of St. Austell, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Tywardrhyth being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Commitment to John de Leycestre of London of the office of changer and assayer of money within the Tower of London, to hold as others have held the office, taking the accustomed wages and fees. By p.s.

The like to the following:

June 10. Henry de Morewode, as parson of the church of Honnesworth, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield. By p.s.